

Kitaabus Saum

(The Book of Fasting)

Compiled and Edited By:
Mufti Afzal Hoosen Elias
(May Allah Protect him)

ABOUT THIS EDITION

With the help of Allaah, this revised edition of the Book of Fasting is in your hands.

It has been divided into three (3) major parts, to make it compatible for Madrassah usage. It is advisable to teach Part 1 in class 8, Part 2 in class 9, and Part 3 in class 10.

It would also be most beneficial for the Muslim public if parts of this book could be read after one of the Fard Salaat daily.

REVIEW

BY: MOULANA C.M. SEMA (Principal, Darul Uloom Newcastle, Natal)

I express my deep thanks to Mufti Elias for giving me the honour to review this recent book on the Masaa'il of Fasting in the month of Ramadhaan, Mufti Afzal Elias is one of the sincere young Ulema of South Africa, who had dedicated himself to the cause of disseminating the teachings of Islaam and guiding the Muslim public, by writing books on various issues pertaining to Sunnah, Correct Practices, and True Beliefs of Islaam.

The book under review is his latest work on SAUM. The book is comprehensive and has covered practically all the essential and necessary masaa'il of Saum and all those issues which are inextricably linked with it, such as KAFFARAH, FIDYAH, SIGHTING of the MOON, EIDUL FITR, SADAQUATUL FITR, TARAWEEH and ITIKAAF. Therefore, it could be rightly termed, a miniature encyclopedia on the masaa'il of SAUM, and as such no Muslim home should be without a copy of this valuable store of knowledge.

Compiled by an ALIM of DEEN and extracted from authentic sources of the Books of Jurisprudence, one can safely rely on the correctness of the Masaa'il contained in this indispensable book.

SAUM was made obligatory in the second year of the Hijrah, It was prescribed to generate the quality of TAQWA in the heart of every Muslim. TAQWA encourages one to lead a virtuous life and discourages one from committing evils; it builds up the 'appetite' for Ibadah and hatred for vice.

But this quality of Taqwa can only be generated, if one fasts fulfilling all the essential Shar'ee requirements of Saum, Therefore I recommend that this important book should be carefully studied and referred to often, whenever the need arises, in order to ensure that our fast is in accordance with the requirements of the Shariah.

I conclude with the sincere prayer that Allaah Ta'aala grant the energetic author, long life with complete health, to continue his noble work with devotion and sincerity, accept his present work and make it a means of true guidance for the Ummah and cause of raf-e-darajaat (increase in status) for the author.

Ameen ya Rabbal Alameen.

INTRODUCTION

Since Allaah Ta'aala created Man, Satan has vowed to lead man astray. Thus we have the enemy who has misled millions of people and who will continue to do so at every opportunity.

Every person has to combat two enemies; (1) Satan; (2) Nafs. Everyone has to fight against Satanic forces, evil whispers and cunning cobwebs laid by Iblees. On the other hand, we have control over the carnal desires, temptations, and passions. To control these, certain steps have to be taken. A man who is physically threatened will walk cautiously and surround himself with bodyguards and be well armed at all times. Similarly Satan has threatened our spiritual well being, and therefore we must arm ourselves with spiritual weapons and be well guarded against the traps laid by Satan, the accursed. One of the ways of doing this is by fasting.

Man has within himself two forces colliding all the time; the Angelic Forces and the Satanic Forces. Man's behavior depends upon which force has the upper hand. In this month of Ramadhan, Allaah blesses us with all the means to enable the Angelic Forces to supersede the evil forces. One must therefore value every moment of this month to spiritually elevate oneself.

Fasting helps us to judge our strength in controlling our lust, greed and passion. It teaches us self-discipline so that we gain control over the factors which Satan uses as his tools against Man. Fasting is a weapon and just as any other weapon is useless unless the user knows how to use it, so too with Fasting. This book has been written with the aim of teaching Muslims how they can use the weapon of Fasting in a manner that is correct and beneficial in their war against Satan, thereby attaining the pleasure of Allaah.

Fasting has been ordained during Ramadhan (the 9th lunar month). The name of this month is derived from many sources. It is worth mentioning one, which is recorded in a Hadith wherein it is related from Rasulullaah ﷺ "Most certainly it (Ramadhan) burns ones sins."

"Tarmado" in Arabic is derived from the word "Rimzun" meaning to burn. Thus, this month burns and purifies us just as iron is burnt in a furnace to remove all impurities. The significance of this month is that a Muslim's sins are forgiven and he becomes pure and clean, on condition that he fulfills all the requirements of the laws of Shari'ah regarding Ramadhan.

Allaah has blessed us with the month of Ramadhan wherein the rebellious Shayateen are chained and one abstains from food and drinks, which grants one the maximum opportunity to discipline and control the Nafs.

All Ambiyaa ﷺ are those chosen fortunate servants of Allaah who are protected from Satan and Nafs from birth, which makes them innocent (Ma'soom). The more a Muslim is able to over-power Satan and Nafs the closer he gains proximity to Allaah.

Even scientists agree that machines require a rest period due to metal fatigue. Allaah, The All Knowing, The Wise, Our Creator, created us and knows that we are bodily weak, and spiritually feeble, in need of occasions to boost and recharge our weak Imaan so that we may adhere to the commands of Allaah in the way shown to us by Our Beloved Rasulullaah ﷺ.

Due to the Mercy of Allaah, in Ramadhan, Masjids are full, charity increases, ties of Brotherhood strengthen, angers and tempers subside, and an atmosphere of peace prevails. Let us monitor the gradual regression after Eid Salaah so that we may stop it in time. Psychologists agree that habits which one wishes to remove will decrease when monitored consciously. When the dazzling temporal world envelops us, we lose concern for the Akhirah and that which took thirty days to achieve can be lost in minutes. We should therefore firmly resolve to be steadfast on the good habits acquired during this blessed month.

The aim of this book is to educate those who wish to learn and also to answer common queries. It is also hoped that the misrepresentations and incorrect beliefs regarding this beautiful gift of fasting from Allaah are cleared.

I Glorify Allaah Ta'aala who has, in His Infinite Mercy and Wisdom enabled us to arrange scattered information following the style of our pious predecessors, who, under the chapter "Kitaabus-Saum", dealt with all that pertained to Ramadhaan.

MAY ALLAAH TA'AALA ACCEPT THIS HUMBLE
WORK

CAUSE OF FARDH FAST

يَا أَيُّهَا الَّذِينَ آمَنُوا كُتِبَ عَلَيْكُمُ الصِّيَامُ
كَمَا كُتِبَ عَلَى الَّذِينَ مِن قَبْلِكُمْ لَعَلَّكُمْ تَتَّقُونَ

"O Muslims, fasting is prescribed for you just as it was prescribed for those before you, that you may guard against evil."¹

The coming of the first part of Ramadhaan is the cause of the obligatory fast of Ramadhaan.

Every day of Ramadhaan is in itself the cause for its obligatory nature in Ramadhaan (e.g. if a person accepts Islaam on the 15th Ramadhaan or becomes "Baaligh" (mature according to Islaam), then for him the 15th Ramadhaan fast and subsequent fasts are obligatory).

N.B. Whenever the word "he" is used, it refers to both male and female unless specified otherwise.

DEFINITION OF FASTING

Fasting, Roza or Saum in Islaam means to refrain from eating, drinking and cohabitation (sex), from "Subhe Sadiq" (pre-dawn) to sunset with the Niyyah (intention) of observing fast.

CONDITIONS FOR THE VALIDITY OF THE FAST

Niyyat (intention) - every fast has to have a separate intention, and one has to be free from Haidh (women's monthly blood flow), Nifaas (women's post-delivery blood flow) and those things that negate the fast.

DEFINITION OF NIYYAT (INTENTION)

Niyyat means inclination of the heart. It is not necessary to state with the tongue.¹

WHAT NIYYAH TO MAKE

The following intention for the Fast has to be expressed during the night:

بِصَوْمِ غَدٍ نَوَيْتُ مِنْ شَهْرِ رَمَضَانَ

Bi-Saum-in ghadin nawaitu min shahri-Ramadhaan

"I have the intention to observe tomorrow a Fast of the month of Ramadhaan."

The intention to be expressed at dawn or later in the day is as follows:

Nawaitu bi-Saum-il-yauma min shahri-Ramadhaan

"I have the intention of observing a Fast today of the month of Ramadhaan".

It is not necessary to express the intention in Arabic alone; one may express it in any language.

NECESSITY OF NIYYAH FOR FASTING

Niyyat is necessary for fasting. A Fast will not be valid without Niyyat. The Niyyat may be made during the previous night or before "noon" on the day for the fast of Ramadhaan, Nazr-e-Muayyan (specific vow fast) or Nafl (optional).

"Day" in Shari'ah (Deen) means the period from Subh-e-Sadiq to sunset. If "Subh-e-Sadiq" appears at 4am and the sun sets at 6pm, then the day will be 14 hours long and mid-day will be at 11am. So the Niyyah for fasting must be before 11am.

For the "Qadha" (compensation) fast of Ramadhaan, Kaffaara (penalty fasts) or Nazr-e-Ghair Muaiyyan (non-specific vow fasts), the Niyyah must be expressed before "Subh-e-Sadiq".

If at the time of Sehri one has no intention of fasting on the day, the Sehri is equal to intention.¹

If a person has many months of Ramadhaan Qadha to make, then the procedure for Qadha is as follows: One should make Niyyah that one is making Qadha of the 1st Ramadhaan month after maturity then the next and so forth until all Qadha are made.²

MORE ABOUT NIYYAH

Niyyah for the fast of Ramadhan can be made in the night or even during the morning. To make Niyyah means simply to form an intention: "Today I am fasting "or "Tomorrow I shall be fasting". However, it is preferable to recite: "Allaahumma Asoomu laka Ghadan"

If one forgot to form the Niyyah, but partook of Sehri, the fast will be valid. It is necessary to renew the Niyyah each day. A single Niyyah for the whole month of Ramadhan will not (suffice).

Every fast in Ramadhan will be counted as a Ramadhan fast even if one made intention for Qadha etc. The fast made during Ramadhan will always be counted as Farz-e-muayyan (specified obligatory fast). The same applies to Wajib-e-Muayyan (specified compulsory fast) or Nazre Muayyan i.e. vow made with specification of time.

ON WHOM IS THE RAMADHAAN FAST OBLIGATORY

- 1) One must be a Muslim.
- 2) One must be a major/adult. Fasting is not obligatory for minors.
- 3) One must be acquainted with the fact that fasting is obligatory during Ramadhan. Hence, if a Muslim is a citizen of a "Dar-ul-Harb" and is not acquainted with the fact that to fast in Ramadhan is Fardh then fasting is not obligatory upon him.¹
- 4) One must be free from the valid reasons for not observing the fast. (See next section for details).

VALID REASONS FOR NOT OBSERVING THE FAST

There are ten valid reasons on account of which one is allowed not to observe the Fast and they are as follows:

- 1) Being on a journey
- 2) Sickness
- 3) Pregnancy
- 4) Suckling
- 5) Intensity of hunger and thirst
- 6) Weakness and old age
- 7) Risk of life
- 8) Jihad
- 9) Un-consciousness
- 10) Insanity

TYPES OF FAST

THERE ARE EIGHT TYPES OF FASTS

1) Farz-e-Muayyan

The duty of keeping all the Ramadhaan fasts is called "Farz-e-Muayyan".

2) Farz-e-Ghair Muayyan

If one leaves out fasting with or without reason during Ramadhaan, the duty to keep these as "Qadha" afterwards is called "Farz-e-Ghair-Muayyan".

3) Waajib-e-Muayyan

A pledge to fast on a fixed day or date (which is called "Nazr-e-Muayyan") makes fasting on that date "Wajib". For example, if one promises to keep fast for Allaah on a particular date, say on the first of Rajab, for success at an examination, for instance, then it will be Wajib for him to fast on the first of Rajab if he passes the examination.

4) Waajib-e-Ghair Muayyan

The compensatory fast for redressing a wrong or the fasts for "Nazr-e-Ghair Muayyan" are Wajib-e-Ghair Muayyan. For example, when one promises to fast (for Allaah) for three days if one passes an examination. Also any Nafl fast, which was broken, becomes compulsory to redeem. No date is fixed for these fasts.

5) Sunnat

There are no "Sunnat-Muaqqida" fasts. But the fasts which Rasulullaah ﷺ kept or encouraged others to keep are called

"Sunnat". For example fasting for two days of Ashura (9th and 10th of Muharam), or on the 9th of Zil Hijjah (Arafat), or on the 13th, 14th and 15th of every month, which are called "Ayyaame Abiaz".

6) Mustahab

After Fardh, Waajib, and Sunnat, all fasts are "Mustahab". But there are certain fasts which carry more blessings than others, for example, the six fasts of Shawwaal, the fasts on the 15th of Shabaan and fasting on Mondays and Thursdays.

About fasting on Mondays and Thursdays, Rasulullaah ﷺ said: "The actions are presented to Allaah on these days and I would like to be in the fasting state when this is being done."

The six fasts of Shawaal - To keep them all together (one after the other) is superior but it is permissible to keep them separate within the month. Rasulullaah ﷺ said that the one who keeps the Ramadhaan fast and the six Shawwal fasts is like one who fasts the whole year round.

Those fasts which Rasulullaah ﷺ encouraged to keep e.g. the fast of Hadhrat Dawood عليه السلام; i.e. to fast on alternate days is liked most by Allaah from all the optional fasts.

Nafl fasts are all the above fasts and those that are neither Makrooh nor Haraam.

7) Makrooh

These are two types:

- 1) Tanzihi
- 2) Tahrimi

1) Tanzihi – e.g. fasting only on the 10th of Muharram

2) Tahrimi (highly detested)- e.g. to fast only on Fridays or only on Saturdays - it is stated in the Hadith that one should not specify the Jumu'ah night for Salaat of Tahajjud (Salaat at late night) and day of Jumu'ah for fasting thereby disregarding other nights and days.

The fast of Narooz or Marjan (fasting on the Persian fire-worshippers' "holy" days) The same will apply to fasting on the "holy" days of the Hindus, Jews and Christians, unless these days coincide with one's normal habit of regular keeping of Mustahab fast e.g. one fasts regularly on Mondays and Thursdays and coincidentally the Hindu festival is also on this day then in this case it is not Makrooh (detested).

To fast continuously is Makrooh Tahrimi e.g. at the time of sunset not to make Iftaari (not to eat) but to join another fast with the one completed or to fast every day.

The wife's Nafl fast without her husband's permission is Makrooh.

8) Haraam (Forbidden)

Fasting on the days of Eid-ul-Fitr, Eid-ul-Adhaa, and the 3 days of "Ayyaam e-Tashreek" (11th, 12th and 13th of Zil-Hijjah) are Haraam (forbidden).

SECTION ON THOSE FASTS WHICH HAVE TO BE SPECIFIED WITH INTENTION (IN THE NIGHT) AND SPECIFICATION AS TO WHAT TYPE OF FAST IT IS AND ON THOSE FASTS WHICH DO NOT HAVE THE ABOVE CONDITIONS

FIRST TYPE OF FAST:-

Those fasts which one has to specify an intention and do not have to intend from the night e.g.:

- 1) Ramadhaan fast
- 2) Nazr Muayyan (specified vow fast)
- 3) Nafl (optional) fast

Intention for the keeping of all the above three fasts can be made from the night till Islaamic MIDDAY.¹

The fast of Ramadhaan will be regarded valid for a person who is healthy and is in station (a Muqeem) even if one makes some other fast intention in the month of Ramadhaan e.g. instead of the fast of Ramadhaan one makes the intention for Nazr or Qadha, then the fast of Ramadhaan will be valid, not the others.

Contrary to the intention of the Musaafir (traveller according to Shariat Islaamic Law), for fasting is not obligatory on him, thus, for which fast one intends that fast becomes valid, and this also applies to the intention of the sick person (with a difference of opinion).

SECOND TYPE OF FAST:-

Those fasts that have to be specified and it is necessary to make the intention in the night e.g.

- 1) QadhaRamadhaan fast
- 2) Qadha of Nafl fast, which was nullified
- 3) All types of Kaffaarah fast, e.g. Zihaar, Yameen, Qadha and Kaffaara of Ramadhaan
- 4) Nazr Mutlaq (general vow fasts).

A Nazr-Muayyan (specified vow date fast) will not be valid by keeping the fast on another date, e.g. a person supposed to fast on the 5th of September and on the 3rd of September kept a fast, saying it is for the 5th.

The fast of the 3rd is not valid for the fast of the 5th. The person still has to fast the specified fulfilling vow fast of the 5th, it is still compulsory on that person, it has not been waived by that intention and by the keeping of a fast on the 3rd of September.

YAUM-E-SHAK FAST (FAST ON THE DAY OF DOUBT)

The month of Ramadhaan starts by:

- a) Sighting of the moon for Ramadhaan, it is compulsory upon some Muslims to try to look for the moon of Ramadhaan on the 29th of Shabaan and if the moon is not visible then:
- b) To complete 30 days of Shabaan and then Ramadhaan commences.

The Day of Doubt is that day after the 29th Sha'baan i.e. 30th Sha'baan.

Every fast on the Day of Doubt is Makrooh (detested).

The intention with which one fasts on the day of doubt is most important as seen in the underlying cases:

- 1) To fast with the certainty of intention, that I am keeping a Nafl fast. This is permissible and if on that day Ramadhaan commenced then it will be counted as part of the Ramadhaan fast otherwise regarded as Nafl (optional).
 - 2) To make intention with certainty that I am keeping a fast of Ramadhaan. In this case it is Makrooh Tahrimi (near prohibition). Thus if it is Ramadhaan then it is regarded as Ramadhaan fast and if not then it is classified as Nafl fast with near prohibition and if it was not Ramadhaan and the person broke the fast, then Qadha is compulsory.
 - 3) To keep the fast with the intention of fulfilling some compulsory fast, then it is also Makrooh Tahrimi (near prohibition) and if it was actually Ramadhaan then it is Ramadhaan. According to one opinion the compulsory fast is fulfilled and according to another opinion it is classified nafl fast with Makrooh Tahrimi.
 4. One makes a tentative doubtful intention that if it is Ramadhaan then my intention is of Ramadhaan, otherwise nafl, in this case whether it is proven Ramadhaan or not, the fast kept will neither be of Ramadhaan nor nafl even.
 5. One makes intention that if it is Ramadhaan then fast is of Ramadhaan or otherwise of some compulsory nature or some Qadha fast. This is also Makrooh Tahrimi. In this case if it is proven Ramadhaan then it will be regarded as Ramadhaan's fast otherwise nafl (optional).
 6. One makes a Niyyah that if it is the Ramadhaan fast then the intention is for it otherwise for nafl. In this case it is also Makrooh. But if it is proven that it is Ramadhaan then it will be counted as Ramadhaan fast and Allaah knows best whether it can be classified as Nafl if it is not Ramadhaan.
- All the fast of the Day of Doubt are Makrooh except those fast which have been made with the intention of certainty (as explained above).

One should not make a double intention e.g. this fast is nafl or Nazr (fast in fulfillment of some vow) and if it is proven to be Ramadhaan then the fast kept will be counted as Ramadhaan's whether it was kept with the intention of nafl, Qadha or Waajib.

If on that Day of Doubt -between Sehri and Iftaari -one doubts and says if this is the day of Ramadhaan then it is fast of Ramadhaan otherwise not, then it is not a fast at all, not classified Ramadhaan nor nafl fast.

To fast on the last day or the second last day of Shabaan is Makrooh but the fast earlier than that is not Makrooh, Rasulullaah ﷺ said: "Do not go ahead of Ramadhaan by one or two days".

However there is no detestment for that person who has a habit of fasting e.g. one always fasts on Mondays and coincidentally the 30th Shabaan is Monday, or e.g. one fasts habitually on the 27th, 28th, 29th, of every month then that person can fast on these days of Shabaan as well.

One should therefore not fast before Ramadhaan due to respect for Ramadhaan.

The Fatwa (ruling) of the Ulema is that to fast regularly 1 to 2 days before Ramadhaan is Makrooh. The Christians at one stage used to fast in Ramadhaan but because of over respect for Ramadhaan they began to add on and on till they made it 40 fasts, which resulted in alteration of the Deen.

The Mufti will give the order of waiting to the people on the Day of Doubt. After that as the time of making intention expires and no definite information of the state of the month is received then the Mufti will give the order to the people to make Iftari (break the fast).

THOSE THINGS THAT DO NOT NULLIFY (BREAK) THE FAST

- 1) Eating forgetfully
- 2) Drinking forgetfully
- 3) To apply oil on the head or anywhere
- 4) To apply Surma - even if its taste is felt in the throat
- 5) Removal of blood
- 6) Backbiting
- 7) Making the intention of Iftaari without actually breaking the fast
- 8) Involuntary entry of smoke into the throat
- 9) Involuntary entry of a fly into the throat
- 10) Involuntary entry of dust into the throat, even if it be of the mill
- 11) On tasting the effect of smoke in the throat although he remembers that he is fasting.
- 12) To wake up in the state of Janaabat (in need of ghusl) and spend the whole day in this manner - although to remain in this condition for the whole day is prohibited
- 13) Water enters the ears while one is in a pool or river etc. (if the eardrum has a hole)
- 14) A person repeatedly uses the same twig to clean one's ears
- 15) Person holds back forcefully a sneeze or swallowed mucus, (it is best to remove the mucus)

One should not make a double intention e.g. this fast is nafl or Nazr (fast in fulfillment of some vow) and if it is proven to be Ramadhaan then the fast kept will be counted as Ramadhaan's whether it was kept with the intention of nafl, Qadha or Waajib.

If on that Day of Doubt -between Sehri and Iftaari -one doubts and says if this is the day of Ramadhaan then it is fast of Ramadhaan otherwise not, then it is not a fast at all, not classified Ramadhaan nor nafl fast.

16) Vomiting involuntarily and then the vomit went back inside even if it be a mouthful

17) Or voluntary vomiting less than mouthful even if he took it back

18) To eat something which is less than a grain in size which was stuck in between the teeth

19) To eat something which is very minute from outside the mouth-picked it up and put it into the mouth – so small a thing that its taste does not reach the throat or is not felt by the throat

20) To use toothpaste, tooth powder, etc. to clean the teeth -provided these do not go down the throat¹

21) One can wet clothing and wear it²

22) A bleeding nose does not break the fast, even if the saliva is slightly affected. But if the blood flows down the throat then the fast will break³

23) It is permissible to make ghusl any amount of times while fasting⁴

24) It is permissible to receive vaccine, inoculation, or injection while fasting⁵

25) To put medicine in the eye is permissible while fasting⁶

26) If on awakening one found blood on the teeth and does not know whether it went into the stomach or not then the fast will not break⁷

⁷ (Durre Muktar Vol 2. Page 134)

27) Pyorrhea (disease of the gums where little matter is given off) does not break the fast, for it is lesser in quantity than the spittle and is unavoidable¹

28) Fast does not break when bitten by a snake, scorpion or wasp

29) If the person who forgot it is Ramadhaan is seen eating / drinking and has the strength to continue to fast, then the one seeing should remind the one eating and not to remind is Makrooh (detested). And if the person who is eating or drinking forgetfully has not the strength to continue the fast then it is better for the one seeing this not to remind the person eating.

30) Unintentional inhaling of smokes and fumes of mosquito coils and air fresheners²

² (Fatawa Mehmoodia Vol 3. Page 127)

THOSE THINGS THAT BREAK THE FAST AND MAKE QADHA AND KAFFAARA COMPULSORY

For Kaffaara to become compulsory there are a few conditions:

- 1) The fast has to be the fast of Ramadhaan. Any fast outside Ramadhaan will not need Kaffaara
- 2) The person has to be Baaligh. (Islaamically mature).
- 3) If a person is a Musaafir in Ramadhaan and keeps a Qadha fast instead of the fast of Ramadhaan and breaks it then Kaffaara does not become compulsory.
- 4) The person has to break the fast voluntarily and intentionally. If due to illness or if someone is forced to break the fast, there is no Kaffaara. By forced is meant the fear of loss of life or of losing any part of the body¹
- 5) Intention must have been made from the night.
- 6) If a person who was not ill from Sehri to Iftaar and does any of the following things without dire need and by his own will-then both Qadha and Kaffaara become compulsory.

1) To eat

2) To drink something which is used as food:

a) That food which is edible and fulfills the desire of the stomach. Someone by his own choice (voluntarily) allowed smoke to enter into the throat (smoke of tobacco, musk, amber, etc.) will make Kaffaara compulsory, for one gets enjoyment and the body is inclined towards sucking smoke.

b) That food by which the body feels better – it aids the body or such a thing which is used as medicines (that which makes the body feel better and aids it towards betterment)

3) To swallow raindrops which enter one's mouth (snow, ice and hail fall in the same category)

4) To eat raw meat, whether Halaal or Haraam

5) According to Faqih Abu Laith رحمته الله also eating of fat and according to all the eating of dry meat

6) Eating of wheat

7) Chewing of wheat, but when one chews a grain of wheat and it remains in the teeth and does not even reach the throat, then there is no Qadha and no Kaffaara.

8) The swallowing of even one grain of wheat

9) Till (sesame seed) or anything like Till to be swallowed by taking from outside. (This is the preferred opinion (Mazhab)).

10) To eat any stone which is used as medicine or for a person who is habitually a stone eater – for such a person to eat stone will break the fast.

11) According to the preferred Mazhab, to eat a little salt (for a lot of salt is neither taken as medicine nor enjoyment)

12) If after any of the following acts one thinks that the fast is broken and thereby eats, etc.

a) After backbiting

b) After removal of blood

c) After applying oil to the moustache

13) To think that the above broke the fast and begin eating intentionally makes Kaffara compulsory

14) If the Mufti gave a ruling according to his Mazhab e.g. The Hadeeth stating that "...backbiting breaks the fast"-which actually means that the purpose of the fast is destroyed but the person (listener) was told that his fast broke and then he ate, in that case only the Qadha is compulsory – but if he knows the actual meaning of the hadith, then obviously Qadha and Kaffarah becomes compulsory

15) If the moon was seen just before the sunset of the 30th fast and someone broke his fast, then Kaffara and Qadha both become compulsory.¹

If Kaffara became necessary by committing any of the aforementioned factors more than once, then one Kaffara is due. But if after completion of the Kaffara, one again commits an act that necessitates Kaffara, then a separate Kaffara has to be made.

THINGS WHICH NULLIFY THE NEED FOR KAFFAARAH

If on that day when the fast was broken due to some reason as stated in the previous section, and which made Kaffara compulsory, then if on that very same day one experiences such an illness that should have made Iftaar permissible, then this nullifies Kaffara.

THINGS WHICH DO NOT NULLIFY THE NEED FOR KAFFAARAH

1) The illness must not be self-created or self-inflicted e.g. Stabbing oneself or dropping oneself from the roof and injuring oneself or to use such medicine that will make one sick.

2) If on that very same day when Kaffara became compulsory that person was forcefully taken on a journey (Zahir Riwaayaat). If he went voluntarily on a journey then also Kaffara becomes compulsory.

However, if he returns from such a journey which he made voluntarily or involuntarily and then, on reaching home, breaks the fast then in both cases Kaffara is not compulsory.¹

HOW KAFFAARAH SHOULD BE MADE

Kaffara is the penalty which the Shari'ah imposes on a Believer for flagrant violation of the sanctity of Fasting during the month of Ramadhan. A penalty of sixty consecutive days fasting is imposed for deliberately breaking or terminating a Fast of Ramadhan. If Niyyah for fasting was made during the night time (i.e. up to the time when Sehri expires) then the deliberate breaking of such a fast will make one liable for the penalty of Kaffara. The penalty of Kaffara (i.e. fasting sixty days in succession one day after the other) applies ONLY for breaking a fast of Ramadhan for which Niyyah was formed during the nighttime.

KAFFAARAH IS FULFILLED BY:

- 1) To free one slave, even if he be a non-Muslim
- 2) If one cannot do (1) then one will have to fast for two months consecutively (without leaving one day as a gap). Therefore one must not fast during the month where-in Eid-ul Adha or Ayyaam Tashreeq (three days after Eidul-Adha) come.
- 3) If one does not have the strength to fast then:
 - a) Feed sixty poor and hungry persons two meals. The condition is that the poor people must be the same persons for both the meals, otherwise the Kaffaara will not be fulfilled or
 - b) Feed one person for sixty days two meals a day. It is not permissible to give one person on one day the food for sixty days or its price (value). The condition is that the one whom you feed must be hungry, for non-hungry people obviously eat less than those who are hungry.

OR

- c) Give each of the sixty poor persons:

- 1) 1 saa of wheat or
 - 2) 1 saa of wheat flour or
 - 3) 1 saa of wheat porridge or
 - 4) 1 saa of dates or
 - 5) 1 saa of barley or any other grain or
 - 6) The price of any one of the above
- 1 saa = 270 Tolas (7.5 Tolas = 87.48grams = 2.8125 troy oz.)

MASAA-IL PERTAINING TO KAFFAARAH

- 1) Kaffaara applies only to fasts of Ramadhan. Hence if a Nafl or any other fast was deliberately broken, then Kaffaara is not imposed. For a Nafl fast broken, only Qadha is offered, i.e. One day has to be fasted in lieu of the Nafl fast which was nullified.
- 2) If Niyyah for fasting during Ramadhan was not formed at night, but was made during the day (any time after Subh Sadiq, i.e. the time when the fast officially commences) then only Qadha of one fast has to be made if the fast was nullified. However, to break the fast without valid Islaamic reason is a heinous sin warranting severe punishment.
- 3) Should a person be liable for Kaffaara, but his/her health is such that there exists no hope of fulfilling the sixty consecutive fasts, then instead of the sixty fasts, sixty Masaakeen (poor persons) have to be fed – each poor person to be given two square meals. Alternatively, it is permissible to give each Miskeen the amount which is given as Sadaqatul Fitr. It should be remembered that the alternative of providing sixty Masaakeen for Kaffaara of Ramadhan is permissible only in the event of total inability to fast the sixty prescribed fasts of the Kaffaara.
- 4) In addition to the sixty days of Kaffaara an extra day fast shall also be kept as Qadha (fulfillment) of the day nullified.
- 5) Even if a number of fasts during any one Ramadhan are nullified deliberately, only a single Kaffaara penalty is imposed. However, if fasts of different Ramadhan were broken then the number of Kaffaarahs will be equal to the number of Ramadhan. For example, someone deliberately ended one or more fasts some years ago in a single Ramadhan, and last year he broke one or more fasts, and this year he did likewise, in this case three different Kaffaara penalties will be imposed upon the breaker because three different Ramadhan are involved. However, this does not mean that he must fast 180 consecutive days – after completing one Kaffaara (sixty consecutive days), he may commence his second Kaffaara after some time, and the third Kaffaara sometime after completing the second.

6) Kaffaara money cannot be used for Masjid renovation or Madressah construction.¹

7) When one has no strength to fast, then only is feeding permissible.²

THOSE THINGS THAT BREAK THE FAST BUT DO NOT MAKE KAFFAARAH COMPULSORY AND ONLY MAKE QADHA COMPULSORY

1) Eating the following: - Raw rice; kneaded flour (dry -without any ghee, fatty oil being mixed with it); a large quantity of salt all at one time; any stone which is generally not eaten nor used for medicines; cotton; wool; paper; any fruit which is generally not eaten unripe; raw nuts, pebbles, iron; sand, copper, gold or silver.

2) Putting medicine in the nose, (nose drops) according to the correct Mazhab.

3) Putting anything into the throat via a tube

4) Putting oil in the ears if there is a hole in the ear-drum

5) Putting drops of water in the ears according to the correct Mazhab-if there is a hole in the eardrum

6) Applying medicine in the stomach wounds or brain (head) which reaches the brain or stomach

7) Entry of drops of rain into the throat

8) Entry of ice into the throat and the person does not remove it with his own action

9) Breaking one's fast due to error or forgetfulness

10) Water going down the throat while gargling

11) Water being put into a sleeping person which reaches the stomach

12) Eating, after eating forgetfully, although knowing the hadith that Rasulullaah ﷺ said: "That person who eats or drinks forgetfully are involved. However, this does not mean that he must fast 180 consecutive days – after completing one Kaffaara (sixty consecutive days), he may commence his second Kaffaara after some time, and the third Kaffaara sometime after completing the second.

should complete the fast" (for the fast has not broken - according to the correct Mazhab)

13) Making intention during the day and not in the night.

14) Being a Musaafir in the day, then deciding to stay and eat.

15) When one was Muqem (one in station) in the morning then he went on journey and ate. The condition being that he must have eaten outside his zone (area), if he eats inside his zone the Kaffaara also becomes necessary.

16) Having had no intention of keeping the fast but starved the whole day

17) Making Iftaar (breaking the fast) doubting whether the sun had set (whereas in reality it had not set)

If a person breaks his fast or his fast breaks then for the rest of the day he should be like a fasting person and the same rule applies for that woman who has become pure after pre-dawn from Haidh (monthly period) or Nifaas (post child birth blood discharge) and upon:

- a) That child who becomes mature
- b) That Kaafir who accepts Islaam.

Besides (a) the child becoming mature and (b) the Kafir becoming Muslim, upon the rest mentioned Qadha is compulsory i.e. for that day.

- 1) To partake of Sehri (pre-dawn tiffin)
- 2) To eat Sehri during its last time (to keep Shari'ah matters on its limit is obligatory and to either increase or decrease Shar'i limits is altering the Deen. Thus to delay Sehri and to break fast on time is Mustahab, by that action we maintain Shar'i limits) - Iftaar becomes Makrooh when stars become visible¹
- 3) Not to delay in Iftaar (opening fast) when there are no clouds - for one is certain of the setting of the sun.
- 4) To make Iftaar with dates and dry dates are best.²

CONCERNING ILLNESS

It is Jaaiz (permissible) for that person not to keep fast:

- 1) One who fears that the illness will increase;
- 2) One who fears that the illness will be prolonged;
- 3) For a pregnant or breast feeding woman who is ill or fears:-
 - a) Damage to her brain (intelligence)
 - b) Destruction (severe illness)
 - c) Becoming ill irrespective of whether the breast-fed child be hers or another's

The above fear is valid when:

- a) One has a strong indication that something is going to occur
- b) Past experience and observation has shown its occurrence

c) A just, good experienced Muslim doctor expresses fear on the case

Iftari is permissible for that person who fears death, due to severe thirst or hunger or fears that he will lose his sanity or fears that he will lose any one of his five senses.

It is important that these conditions of severe thirst or hunger are not created by oneself (e.g. one went hunting and began running, etc. and due to this he breaks his fast, then Kaffaara is compulsory).

However, if a worker is forced to do such a job which causes severe thirst or hunger and is forced to break the fast then he will not make Kaffaara.¹

CONCERNING THE MUSAAFIR

Iftaari is permissible for a Musaafir.

For a Musaafir to fast is Mustahab and desirable if:

- a) Fasting is not detrimental for him
- b) When most of his travelling companions are also fasting

When most of the travelling companions are not fasting then to open the fast is more superior so that the unity in the Jamaat of travel is maintained.

When the sick person dies before recovering or a Musaafir dies before the completion of his journey then it is not compulsory for him to make a will for giving of fidya for those last fasts.

A healthy person on station (Muqem) must, on recovery or return from the journey, make Qadha for missed fasts.

If he does not make Qadha then it is compulsory upon such a person to make a will for the payment of fidya for missed fasts.

One must not postpone fasting of Ramadhaan due to examinations or tests.¹

Increase of heat, thirst, or hunger while fasting will increase the Thawaab (rewards) of fasting.²

QADHA FAST

To keep Qadha (other than Kaffaara) continuously (without a day break in between) is not a condition, but it is Mustahab to keep the Qadha continuously.

Ramadhaan arrives and Qadha of the previous Ramadhaan are still outstanding, then the present Ramadhaan's fasts will have to be made first and thereafter the Qadha of the previous Ramadhaan.

One cannot keep Qadha of any fasts during the month of Ramadhaan.

It is permissible for a Sheikh-e-Faani or Aujooz-e-Faania (such an old man or women whose strength has diminished and is now awaiting death) not to fast. On both fidya is compulsory.

NAFL FAST

According to one Riwayat (narration) it is permissible for a person keeping a nafl fast to make Iftaari without reason.

According to another Riwayat, to be a guest is sufficient reason to make Iftaar. If before or after Zawwaal, any of one's parents ordered one to break the fast or one became a guest and the host was not prepared to eat alone, then one may break the fast.¹

Rasulullaah ﷺ said: "that person who, out of respect for his host broke the nafl fast then for that fast he will get the Thawaab of 1000 fasts and if he makes Qadha for the broken fast then in exchange of every fast he will get the Thawaab of 2000 fasts (1000 for Qadha fasts and 1000 for the fast itself).²

Qadha becomes compulsory upon a person who breaks a nafl fast (due to any reason). However, if the reason was that one started fasting on one of the two Eids or the three days after Eid-ul-Adha, and then broke it, there is no Qadha compulsory.³

To keep nafl fast before Ramadhaan although one has Qadha fasts to fulfill is permissible. However this law does not apply to Qadha salaah.⁴

The best fasts after Ramadhaan are the Muharram ones and the best Salaat after Farz are the night Nafl Salaah (Tahajjud).⁵

On the 10th of Muharram fasting is Masnoon. According to one's capacity to spend more on food for the family as compared to other days is Mustahab and no special Salaah is stipulated for that day.⁶

One can keep the fast in Arafat and it will not harm the Hajj in any way.¹

According to the Hanafis, to fast only on Jumu'ah is not Makrooh²

FIDYAH RECOMPENSATION

A person who has become extremely weak due to old age or disease, and has no hope of recovery and as a result cannot fast, has been allowed by Shari'ah not to fast but allowed to give fidya.

QUANTITY OF FIDYAH

The fidya for a fast is similar to that of Fardh and Waajib salaah. Fidyah for every fasting day is:

- a) 1 saa of wheat or
- b) 3 lbs. = 1.6 kg of wheat; or
- c) 7 lbs. = 3.2 kg of barley; or
- d) The equivalent of the above in cash (the price of that year) or kind - to a poor and needy person.

REGULATIONS CONCERNING FIDYAH

1) If after paying of fidya a sick person regains health by the Grace of Allaah, he should observe the missed fasts on other days, hoping from Allaah that He will not let go waste the reward of the fidya given away by him.

2) If a dying person who has to observe some missed fasts makes a will that fidya should be paid for his missed fasts out of his property, then it is incumbent upon his heirs to pay off the required fidya, provided that it does not exceed one-third of the property (estate) If it does, the extra amount can be paid only with the concurrence of the heirs, though even in that case, the concurrence of the minor heirs will be of no legal value and effect (i.e. one should wait until the minors mature and then seek their permission).

3) If the dying person has made no will, the heirs themselves may pay off fidya for the missed fasts, hoping from Allaah that He will accept it and will not call the concerned person to account.

4) Fidyah for one missed prayer is the same as of one missed fast, therefore, if a person missed all the prayers on the day he will be required to pay fidya for six prayers (including the compulsory Witr prayer).

5) The injunctions for paying fidya for the missed prayers of a dying person are the same as for his missed Fasts.

6) The heirs cannot observe the Fasts or offer Prayers on behalf of a dead person

7) To postpone a Ramadhan Fast on account of a number of minor excuses or illness or pay Fidyah in lieu of that is not correct; the Ramadhan fast can be postponed only in case of one being genuinely unwell for Rasulullaah ﷺ said:

“The person who abandons one Fast of Ramadhan without a genuine reason or illness cannot recompense it even if he fasts throughout the rest of his life”¹

8) Fidyah is allowed for such a person who made a vow that one is going to fast everyday and

- a) Due to inability cannot fulfill the vow;
- b) Become so involved in daily affairs that one cannot fulfill the vow.

9) If such a person loses the ability to even give fidyah then he must seek pardon and forgiveness from Allaah.

10) Sheikh-e-Fani or the Ajooz-e-Fania are not classified by age specification. It depends on strength.¹

11) A person dies in the state of fasting due to thirst or hunger. Salaatul Janaazah will be made and there is no sin on that deceased person. (THIS REFERS TO FARDH FAST).²

12) The Sheikh-e-Fani can give fidyah in his lifetime.³

13) Fidyah is calculated on the price of the stipulated quantity of wheat or barley of that particular year wherein fast or Salaat was missed (e.g. a person has to pay fidyah for fast missed) 1970 till 1980 must be sought and payment made accordingly.

14) Fidyah payment is out of dire necessity and not on pre-planned excuses (i.e. not to fast, etc. with the intention of paying fidyah when the time arrives).

VOWS AND FASTING

If one makes a vow (on any action which depends upon utterance i.e. one: has to say it with the tongue and thinking about it in the heart will not be sufficient) then it is compulsory to fulfill it.

Making a vow that one is going to visit the sick (it does not become compulsory, for such a vow is in itself not valid).

1) Visiting of the sick and attending SalaatJanaazah are definitely good actions which reap tremendous reward but they are not Fardh (obligatory) and the vow must be relating to Huquq-ul-Allaah (Rights of Allaah). Visiting the sick etc., have become necessary due to Huquq-ul-Ibaad (Rights of man), and vows cannot be made on Huququl Ibaad.¹

2) Vow cannot be made on performance of a Fardh act itself e.g. to vow to make FardhZuhrSalaat,

a) To make vow on Itikhaaf (it is similar to the lasting sitting of namaaz) which is Fardh- Mirqat or

b) To perform such a namaaz that is not Fardh or,

c) To fast is valid and correct (i.e. -a, b and c),

d) If a person without any limit or condition makes a general vow e.g. make compulsory upon myself for Allaah the fast on such and such a day,

e) Or to so and so I will give Sadaqah for Allaah,

f) Or I will give in Allaah's way (path) so much money etc.,

g) Or made a vow which is conditional e.g. that if so and so gets better I will keep X number of fasts.

Then in the above cases the fast becomes compulsory when that person becomes better otherwise not and when the condition for the others is present then to fulfill those vows are compulsory.

According to the correct (tact) to make a vow that one is going to keep fast on the five prohibited days is correct, (two Eids and three days after Eid ul-Adha) but One has to break the fast on these days and keep Qadha and if a person kept the vows and fasted on these days, then it will be valid (the vow is fulfilled - the compulsory duty has been performed but it will be near prohibition).

Time, place, money and person specification is not valid and futile

- 1) Thus if a person vowed he is going to fast in Sha'baan but fasted in Rajab, it is valid.
- 2) If a person vowed that he is going to read two Rakaats of Salaah in Makkah but read it in Egypt, it is valid.
- 3) If a person vowed he is going to give "this" money in Sadaqah and gave "some other" money in Sadaqah, it is valid
- 4) If a person vowed that he is going to spend on Abdullaah but spent on Abdur Rahmaan then it is valid.

One cannot fulfill the vow before one's desire is fulfilled. Therefore if one vowed to keep a fast if someone recovers, and fasted before the sick person recovered then the vow has not been discharged and still remains obligatory, thus when that person recovers he will have to fast again.

MISCELLANEOUS

- 1) In an Islaamic state, one eating and drinking openly during the day of Ramadhaan is liable to be executed.¹
- 2) An oral announcement to state the end of the Sehri can be made but should not be considered as Sunnah.²
- 3) The general rule is that the fast is broken if anything reaches the cavity of the stomach or brain through an internal wound or mouth, ears, nose, anus, vagina, stomach, and skull.³
- 4) Medicine and oil dropped into the ears reaches the brain and affects it and hence the fast is broken.⁴
- 5) Salaah of Maghrib can be delayed for five to seven minutes in the month of Ramadhaan.⁵
- 6) To start (Sehri) and end (Iftaar) the fasting on information by telephone is not sufficient.⁶
- 7) Smelling of fragrance or odor intentionally or otherwise does not break the fast. But inhaling the smoke of agarbatti (incense sticks) or cigarettes will break the fast.⁷
- 8) Eid-ul-Fitr can be performed the next day due to some valid reason and one can also inform the people.⁸
- 9) To specify a time to visit the graves is bid'ah but to visit graves is Sunnah. To specify a time for visiting of graves was not prevalent at the time of the Salf-Saleheen (pious predecessors) and this bid'ah is of the type that its origin is permissible but specification of time makes it bid'ah.⁹

SUHUR (SEHRI)

It is Masnoon (Sunnah) to partake of Suhur (Sehri) during the last portion of the night. It is also a means of attaining great blessings and Thawaab. The Sunnah will be attained if one partakes of Suhur at any time after midnight. But it is better and desirable to partake of Suhur in the last portion of the night. If the Muazzin has called out the Azaan before its time, it will not be prohibited to partake of Suhur till just before Subh Saadiq appears. It will suffice if one makes an intention to fast in one's mind after the Suhur.

Delaying Sehri to such an extent that there is fear of the appearance of Subhe-Sadiq should be avoided.

To partake of Sehri at its correct time and then spend time chewing paan or smoking till the last minute should be avoided.

THE IMPORTANCE OF SEHRI DURING RAMADHAAN

A person partaking of Sehri during the middle of the night (i.e. before the time of Sehri) deprives himself of the complete Sawaab of Sehri through this action.

Rasulullaah ﷺ is reported to have said: "Verily, Allaah and his Malaaikeh send Mercy upon those who eat Sehri" (Suhur).

Many Ulema agree that to partake of Sehri is Mustahab and many people are deprived of this reward because of laziness. (i.e. not getting up from one's sleep to perform this Sunnah).

Another Hadith indicates that the difference between our fasting and that of Ahlul-Kitaab (Jews and Christians) lies in partaking of food at Sehri time.

Ibn Hajar رحمه الله in his commentary on Sahih Bukhari, mentioned the following blessings of Sehri:

a) In it, the Sunnah is followed

b) Through it, we oppose the way of Ahle-Kitaab, which we are at all times called upon to do

c) It provides strength for Ibaadah

d) It promotes more sincerity in Ibaadah

e) It aids in the elimination of bad temper

f) Sehri is a time when Duaa's are accepted

g) It gives one the opportunity to remember Allaah, make Zikr and lift up the hands to Him in Du'aa.

DU'AA AT THE TIME OF SEHRI

اللَّهُمَّ أَصُومُ لَكَ فَاعْفُرْ لِي مَا قَدَّمْتُ وَمَا أَخَّرْتُ

"O Allaah, I keep fast for You, so forgive my future and past sins"

بِصَوْمِ غَدٍ نَوَيْتُ مِنْ شَهْرِ رَمَضَانَ

"I intend keeping fast tomorrow for the month of Ramadhan."

THE IMPORTANCE OF SADAQATUL-FITR

Fitr means to break fast or to refrain from fasting. Hence, the Eid after the fasts of Ramadhan is called Eid-ul-Fitr, as it is the day of rejoicing after the completion of fasting. On this occasion of happiness, as a sign of gratitude one has to give a specific amount in alms, which is called Sadaqatul-Fitr. To purify and obtain complete blessings for the fasts of Ramadhan Mubarak one has to give Sad'qatul-Fitr. It is reported from Hazrat Ibn Abbas رضي الله عنه that Rasulullaah ﷺ made charity of Fitr compulsory as a purification of fasts from useless talks and vain discourses and also as food for the poor (Abu Dawood). Thus it is Waajib to give Sad'qatul Fitr to purify one's fast. Another object in giving Sad'qatul-Fitr on this happy occasion is also to assist the poor and needy, so that they may rejoice with the more fortunate.

In a narration of Tirmizi, it is reported that Rasulullaah ﷺ sent a proclaimer through the lanes of Makkah to proclaim "Beware charity of Fitr is Waajib on every Muslim, male or female, free or slave, young or old – two 'mud's' (measures) of wheat, or its equivalent, or one 'Sa'a' from food crops".

To distribute a specific amount of money, barley, dates, etc. on the day of Eid-ul-Fitr is Waajib. This giving of alms to the poor and needy on this auspicious day is called Sadaqatul-Fitr. Rasulullaah ﷺ instructed the giving of Sadaqatul-Fitr, in the same year (2 A.H) fasting in Ramadhan was made compulsory. The reasons for giving Sadaqatul-Fitr are:

- 1) To give Sadaqatul-Fitr in lieu of the acceptance of one's fasting
- 2) To thank Allaah Ta'aala for bestowing on us the strength to fast during the month of Ramadhan.
- 3) To purify one's fast and obtain the complete blessings of fasting.
- 4) To celebrate the completion of fasting.
- 5) To demonstrate the greatness of the day of Eid.
- 6) To assist the poor in joining the atmosphere of Eid.

Sadaqatul-Fitr is compulsory charity which becomes payable on the occasion of Eid-u-Fitr. If one did not do so - it remains due no matter how much time passes after Eid.

RULES OF SADAQATUL-FITR

Sadaqatul-Fitr or (Fitrah) is Waajib (compulsory) upon all Muslims, (men, women and children) who on the day of Eid-ul-Fitr are owners of the Nisaab of Zakaat.

Fitrah becomes Waajib when the Day of Fitr dawns with the commencement of Fajr time. Therefore, if someone died before the dawn of Fajr on the Day of Eid, Fitrah will not be paid out of his (the deceased's) estate, since this Fitrah is not Waajib on him. And, if a child is born before the dawn of Fajr, Fitrah will be paid on his behalf. If a child is born after the entry of Fajr (on the Day of Eid) Fitrah is not Waajib on his behalf.

The father has to pay Fitrah on behalf of his under-age children, i.e. those who have not attained the age of puberty.

It is not obligatory upon a husband to pay Fitrah on behalf of his wife. If she is the owner of Nisaab, she pays her own Fitrah.

If a minor is the owner of wealth to the amount of Nisaab, then payment of Fitrah on behalf of the minor could be made out of his (minor's) wealth.

The fitrah should preferably be paid before the Eid Salaah.

It is not permissible to delay the payment of Fitrah later than the Day of Eid. However, if it was not paid on the Day of Eid or before, the obligation remains and the fitrah will have to be paid.

It is permissible to pay the Fitrah in advance at any time during the month of Ramadhaan. The Fitrah could be paid even before Ramadhaan. Sadaqatul-Fitr is Waajib upon all those who fasted as well as those who did not fast for some reason or the other.

The Fitrah must only be paid to "the poor" i.e. those who are entitled to accept Zakaat.

Fitrah cannot be utilized for any other charitable purpose other than giving to the poor. Therefore, if Fitrah monies are accumulated and then spent on some other charitable cause, the Fitrah obligation of the Fitrah-prayers will not be discharged.

Rasulullaah ﷺ said: "The fast remains suspended between heaven and earth until the Fitrah is paid".

This Hadith of Rasulullaah ﷺ illustrates the importance of the Fitrah and its direct bearing on the acceptance of our Saum (fasting). Allaah Ta'aala only accepts the fast when the obligation of Fitrah is correctly discharged. The Muslim public should therefore be very scrupulous when effecting payment of the Fitrah. If the Fitrah is misused or wrongly distributed by those representing the public, the public will still be responsible for its (Fitrah's) payment.

DUAA OF A FASTING PERSON

Duaa of a fasting person is surely accepted. The time of Iftaar is a time when the Duaa of a fasting person is accepted. Submit before Allaah all your needs. It is reported from Hadhrat Abu Hurairah ؓ that Rasulullaah ﷺ said: "There are three people whose duas are not rejected; the fasting person until he breaks the fast; the just ruler and the Duaa of the oppressed, whose Duaa Allaah lifts above the cloud and opens unto it the doors of the heavens, and Allaah says: 'I swear by My honour, verily I shall assist you even though it may be after some time'."

IFTAAR

Sahl Bin Sa'd ؓ reported that Rasulullaah ﷺ said: "People will remain prosperous as long as they hasten with Iftaar (i.e. they break their fast immediately the time for Iftaar enters)".¹

It is Sunnat to make Iftaar (to break one's fast) immediately after sunset. One should not delay in Iftaar until the stars begin to appear, as this is the common practice of the Ahle Kitaab.

It is indeed harmful if one partakes in the Iftaar meal for so long that he misses his Maghrib Salaah.

It is better to break the fast in the Masjid, so that the Maghrib Salaah is not missed.

To make one's Maghrib Salaah at home, so that one can indulge in the provisions of Iftaar while missing the blessings of Salaah with Jamaat is a shameful act.

RECOMMENDED DU'AAS AT THE TIME OF IFT AAR

اللَّهُمَّ لَكَ صُمْتُ ، وَبِكَ آمَنْتُ ، وَعَلَيْكَ تَوَكَّلْتُ ، وَعَلَى رِزْقِكَ أَفْطَرْتُ

CHAPTER TWO SIGHTING OF THE HILAAL (MOON)

1) The usual (principle) on which the determinations of the Islaamic months are based has always been the Rooyah (sighting) of the hilaal (moon).

2) It is possible to prepare correct time tables showing Sun set, Sunrise, Zawaal and Salaat times but not possible to prepare time tables for the sighting of the hilaal. The timetable is unable to provide the human act of sighting the hilaal essential for the commencement of the Islaamic month.

3) The 'Birth' of the moon or assumed feasibility of sighting the moon are not the principles for determining the Islaamic months.

4) If the hilaal (moon) is not sighted due to poor weather conditions, Rasulullaah ﷺ commanded that the month be completed with thirty days. This has been the practice of the ummah for the past years since Rasulullaah ﷺ.

DECLARING THE PRINCIPLE OF ROOYAH (SIGHTING)

"Bakhtari narrates: We set out for Umrah. When we entered the Valley of Nakhla we made to sight the hilaal. (When the hilaal was sighted) some persons said that it was the third moon (on account of its large size) and others said that it was the second moon. We then met Ibn Abbaas ؓ and...(this incident was explained to him). He (Ibn Abbaas) said: 'Which night did you see it?' We said: 'On a certain night' Ibn Abbas said:

"Verily, Rasulullaah ﷺ related the hilaal to its sighting (rooyah). Therefore, it is the moon of the night you saw it."¹

In another narration, Hadhrat Ibn Abbaas, the eminent Sahabi, ؓ, said:

يَا وَاسِعَ الْفَضْلِ اغْفِرْ لِي

"O You who are Great in Bounties, forgive me".

"Verily, Rasulullaah ﷺ related the hilaal to its sighting (rooyah). Therefore, it is the moon of the night you saw it."¹

In another narration, Hadhrat Ibn Abbaas, the eminent Sahabi, ؓ, said:

'Verily, Allaah has related (or associated) it (the hilaal) to its sighting. If then it becomes cloudy over you (and the hilaal becomes concealed from your gaze), then complete the number (of days)."¹

It should thus be absolutely clear that the birth and the size of the moon are not factors to consider when determining the commencement of the Islaamic months. The standard fixed by Allaah Ta'ala is the SIGHTING of the hilaal. The hilaal is related to its sighting not to the birth. There is absolutely no ambiguity in this divinely fixed Shar'i principle.

In another narration, Hadhrat Abu Hurairah رضي الله عنه says:

"Rasulullaah ﷺ said: 'Fast at its SIGHTING and terminate the fasting at its SIGHTING. Then if (conditions) become cloudy over you, complete the number of (the days of) Sha'baan thirty (days)."²

And

"Ibn Umar رضي الله عنه narrates that, verily Rasulullaah ﷺ while speaking of Ramadhaan, said: 'Do not fast until you have seen the hilaal (the crescent moon) and do not terminate the fasting until you see it. If then (conditions are cloudy over you, then enumerate for it (i.e. for the hilaal))"³

The following narrations further strengthens the claim that the sighting of the hilaal is essential and in the event of no sighting being reliably reported, thirty days will apply:

"Muhammad Bin Ziyaad narrates: 'I heard Abu Hurairah saying: Rasulullaah ﷺ said: "Fast at its sighting and end the fasting at its sighting. If then the moon becomes hidden on you (on account of weather conditions), then count thirty (days)."

Thus, Imaam Nawawi رحمته الله states:

² (Sahihul Bukhaari)

³ (Shahih Bukhari)

"The summary of the discussion is that the basis is the (sighting of the) hilaal. Sometimes it is complete thirty and sometimes it is less (Twenty nine). Sometimes the hilaal is not sighted. Then, completing the number with thirty is obligatory."

THE MEANING OF AADIL

Aadil in the context of Shar'i Shahaadat (testimony) refers to a person in whom there is the quality of adaalah. What is the meaning of adaalah in the Shariah? The Books of Islaam define adaalah as follows:

"The meaning of adaalah is the ability (or attribute) which brings about the state of permanent Taqwa and culture (in the Muslim). The minimum requirement for adaalah is abstention from major sins and (abstention) from habitual commission of minor sins as well as from such acts which are negatory of culture (murawwah or good Islaamic moral behavior)."¹

Thus according to the Shariah and Aadil person is one who abstains from major sins; does not habitually commit sins and does not indulge in lowly disreputable acts which are unbecoming to the dignity of a Mu'min.

The following are some khilaaful murawwah (contrary to culture and dignity) acts;

- 1) Eating in the street
- 2) Walking bareheaded in public
- 3) Walking in public with elbows exposed such as those who don short - sleeved shirts and sweaters in public
- 4) Urinating in public places and public urinals in full view of others as is the style of the western Kuffaar.
- 5) Any acts which although not sinful, nevertheless are demeaning to the honour and dignity of a Mu'min.

The Shariah stipulates that only the testimony of Aadil persons must be accepted in the process of confirming the sighting of the hilaal, not only Ramadhan and Shawaal, but for all the Islaamic months.

In this regard the books of the Shariah state:

"The testimony of an Aadil shall be accepted according to Abu Hanifah ..."¹

".... (the testimony) will be accepted if the testifier is an Aadil...."²

"His testimony will be accepted when he is an Aadil"³

"Adaalah is a condition (for the acceptance of testimony regarding the sighting of the hilaal)."⁴

THE TESTIMONY OF A FAASIQ

Since adaalah is condition for the acceptance of the testimony of sightseers of the hilaal it should be quite apparent that the testimony of a Faasiq (a flagrant violator of the Shariah) is not acceptable. The Shariah does not even accept the testimony of a disrespectful person or an undignified person -for sighting of the hilaal. To a greater degree will the testimony of a Faasiq be rejected.

The books of the Shariah state in this regard:

"Adaalah is stipulated as a condition (for accepting of testimony pertaining to sighting the hilaal) because the statement of a Faasiq in matters of the Deen is unacceptable"¹

"Verily, the report of only a Faasiq will not be accepted"²

"Adaalah is conditional (for acceptance of testimony) in all (sighting for all months) because the statement of a Faasiq in Deeni matters is unacceptable even if a number of Faasiqs makes the report ... So it is stated in Al-Wulul-jijyah."³

"The statement of a Faasiq is unanimously unacceptable in Deeni matters"⁴

"When the fisq (sin and immorality) of a person is obvious, then there is no one among our authorities who assert this (i.e. acceptance of testimony)."⁵

A Faasiq is one who flagrantly transgresses the laws of Allaah Ta'ala. One who neglects his Fardh Salaat; one who does not regularly perform his Salaat in Jamaat; one who wears short trousers exposing his thighs in public; one who shaves or cuts his beard and one who generally indulges in sin openly is termed a Faasiq.

MASTURUL HAAL

Masturul Haal or Majhulul Haal is a person whose moral condition is not known. According to some authorities of the Shariah the testimony of a MasturulHaal regarding the sighting of the hilaal will be acceptable. Another authoritative 'View is that the testimony of such a person will not be acceptable in the matter of hilaal sightings.

The books of Islaam state in this regard as follows:

"Majhulul Haal, i.e. Masturul Haal-according to Imaam Abu Hanifah his testimony will be accepted. However, according to the prominent view (Zaahirur Riwaayat) of the Fuqaha his testimony will not be accepted ..."¹

"Regarding Masturul Haal according to Zaahirur Riwaayat-his testimony will not be acceptable, Hasan narrates that according to Abu Hanifah رضي الله عنه his testimony will be accepted. And, this is the correct view. So it appears in Muheet. Halwaani too adopted this view as it appears in Sharhun Niqaayah of Shaikh Abul Makaarim."²

In view of the authoritative rulings regarding the Masturul Haal, the Imaam or Ulema hearing testimony on the sighting of the hilaal may use their discretion and if they feel convinced of the truth of the Masturul Haal, his testimony may be accepted.

JAMM-E-GHAFEER (LARGE GROUP)

Earlier it was explained that when the skies are clear, the sighting of the hilaal, whether for Ramadhaan or Eid will be confirmed only by the reports of a large group (Jamm-e-Ghafeer). There is no one specified definition for Jamm-e-Ghafeer. It is not restricted to a specific number of persons. The determination of the number of persons to comprise the Jamm-e-Ghafeer of a particular place or locality is left to the discretion of the Qaadhi, Imaam or Ulema who handle the affairs of the Deen.

Regarding the explanation of Jamm-e-Ghafeer, the Books of the Shariah state the guiding principle as follows:

"Jam'un Azeemun (a large group) by means of which certitude is acquired, It (Jamm-e-Ghafeer) is left to the discretion of the Imaam; according to the (accepted view of) the Mathhab it is not restricted to a specific number."¹

"It (Jam'un Azeem -large group) is left to the discretion of the Imaam In As-Siraaj it is said: In Zaahirur Riwaayat no specific number has been fixed for this group. According to Abu Yusuf it is fifty men. It has also been said that it means the majority in a neighbourhood. Again it has been said, 'from every Masjid (in a locality) one or two'.Of all these versions the correct one is that it is left to the discretion of the Imaam"²

"In Zaahirur Riwaayat, the large group has not been fixed with a specific number.... According to Imaam Muhammad the number of few and many will be left to the discretion of the Imaam. So is it said in Badaai."³

"Rectitude is that which has been narrated from Imaam Muhammad as well as Imaam Abu Yusuf: That the reports should pour in abundance from every side."⁴

⁴ (Fathul Qadeer)

"The most authoritative view is to leave it to the discretion of the Imaam because of the variance of truthfulness in people."¹

There is no conflict in the various views cited here regarding the meaning of Jamm-e-Ghafeer, The principle here, as mentioned earlier, is 'the discretion of the Imaam, the Qaadhi, the Mufti Or the Ulema dealing with the matter.' Thus, in Imaam Abu Yusuf's time, the number fifty was considered an adequate definition for Jamm-e-Ghafeer, According to Khalf Bin Ayyub the number 500 was small during that time. In other words, 500 persons in a city such as Balkh during that time was not regarded as a Jamm-e-Ghafeer. The various interpretations indicate with clarity that the difference in numbers mentioned by the various Fugaha were not to restrict the definition of Jamm-e-Ghafeer to a fixed number of persons for all time.

Hence, it is said in Bahrur Raaiq:

According to Muhammad, whatever the ruling authority considers to be abundant will be so (i.e. a large group) and whatever he considers to be few will be less (i.e. will not be Jamm-e-Ghafeer)."

Thus, the number of persons that the Ulema in our time consider to be Jamm-e-Ghafeer should be regarded as such, otherwise not. It is not possible to fix any specific number for Jamm-e-Ghafeer for all places in view of the wide variety of circumstances prevailing at different places. Differences in the sizes of the Muslim communities in various places, preponderance of fussaag, lack of Deeni interest, variations in the moral condition of the different Muslim communities, etc., are all factors which Imaam / Qaadhi / Mufti or Ulema will have to take into consideration in their interpretation of Jamm-e-Ghafeer.

DIFFERENT PLACES, DIFFERENT EID DAYS:

The following narration testifies to the validity of differences in the occasions of Ramadhaan and Eid.

"Kuraib narrates that Ummul Fadhl Bintil Harriith sent him on an errand to Muaawiya رضي الله عنه, in Shaam,

He said:

'I went to Shaam and fulfilled her requirement and while I was still in Shaam the hilaal of Ramadhaan appeared over me. Thus, I saw the hilaal on the night of Friday. Then towards the end of the month I came to Madinah and Abdullaah Ibn Abbaas questioned me.

He then spoke about the hilaal and said:

'Did you (i.e. the people in Shaam) see the hilaal?'

I said: 'We saw it on the night of Friday.' He said; 'Did you set it?' I said: 'Yes, and the people saw it and fasted. Muaawiyah too fasted.'

He (Ibn Abbaas) said: "But, we saw it on the night of Saturday. Therefore, we shall continue to fast until we complete thirty days and we see it (i.e. the hilaal at the end of the 29th day)."¹

Despite the fact that the news of the sighting of the hilaal in Damascus was reliably reported to Hadhrat Ibn Abbaas رضي الله عنه, he maintained that the people of Madinah would adhere to their own sighting. This Hadith is proof for the claim that the sighting of one place is not incumbent on the people of another place.

The Sunnah indicates that there is no incumbency for the Eid or Ramadhaan to co-inside or begin on the same day throughout the world. When the Shariah has not imposed this type of 'unity' the attempt to forge it on the basis of the opinions of the deviates is false and in conflict with the Shariah.

"The most authoritative view is to leave it to the discretion of the Imaam because of the variance of truthfulness in people."¹

There is no conflict in the various views cited here regarding the meaning of Jamm-e-Ghafeer, The principle here, as mentioned earlier, is 'the discretion of the Imaam, the Qaadhi, the Mufti Or the Ulema dealing with the matter.' Thus, in Imaam Abu Yusuf's time, the number fifty was considered an adequate definition for Jamm-e-Ghafeer, According to Khalf Bin Ayyub the number 500 was small during that time. In other words, 500 persons in a city such as Balkh during that time was not regarded as a Jamm-e-Ghafeer. The various interpretations indicate with clarity that the difference in numbers mentioned by the various Fuqaha were not to restrict the definition of Jamm-e-Ghafeer to a fixed number of persons for all time.

Hence, it is said in Bahrur Raaiq:

According to Muhammad, whatever the ruling authority considers to be abundant will be so (i.e. a large group) and whatever he considers to be few will be less (i.e. will not be Jamm-e-Ghafeer)."

Thus, the number of persons that the Ulema in our time consider to be Jamm-e-Ghafeer should be regarded as such, otherwise not. It is not possible to fix any specific number for Jamm-e-Ghafeer for all places in view of the wide variety of circumstances prevailing at different places. Differences in the sizes of the Muslim communities in various places, preponderance of fussaag, lack of Deeni interest, variations in the moral condition of the different Muslim communities, etc., are all factors which Imaam / Qaadhi / Mufti or Ulema will have to take into consideration in their interpretation of Jamm-e-Ghafeer.

DUA WHEN SIGHTING THE NEW MOON FOR RAMADHAAN

اللَّهُمَّ أَهْلَهُ عَلَيْنَا بِالْيَمِينِ وَالْإِيمَانِ وَالسَّلَامَةِ وَالْإِسْلَامِ وَالتَّوْفِيقِ لِمَا تُحِبُّ
وَتَرْضَى، رَبِّي وَرَبُّكَ اللَّهُ.

O Allaah! Let the crescent moon appear Over us with Barkaat and Imaan; with peace and Islaam; and with Taufeeq for us to practice such actions which You love. (O' Moon!) My Creator and Your Creator is Allaah.

DUA WHENEVER SIGHTING THE MOON

أَعُوذُ بِاللَّهِ مِنْ شَرِّ هَذَا الْغَاسِقِ

I seek refuge with Allaah from the evil of this object which darkens.

SOME RULES PERTAINING TO THE HILAAL

- 1) It is incumbent on Muslims to search for the hilaal (crescent moon) of Ramadhan at the end of the 29th of Sha'baan.
- 2) The testimony of a Faasiq (flagrant transgressor) regarding the sighting of the hilaal is not acceptable.
- 3) The testimony of a mastoorul haal (one whose condition is not known) is acceptable according to Imaam Abu Hanifah رحمته الله.
- 4) If someone sees the hilaal of Ramadhan alone, but for some reason his testimony was rejected, he will have to fast on that day. If he does not, he will have to observe Qadha of the Fast. However, there is no Kaffaarah on him in this case. If he completes thirty days for Ramadhan and the hilaal for Eid was not sighted, he will have to continue fasting with the people even if it means that he fasts for thirty one days.

5) If only one person saw the hilaal for Shawaal at the end of the 29th day of Ramadhan but for some reason his testimony was not accepted, it will not be permissible for him to abstain from fasting. It is incumbent on him to fast. Should he not fast, he will have to make Qadhaa.

6) The hilaal for Sha'baan was sighted. However, the month was completed with thirty days and Ramadhan was commenced without the hilaal of Ramadhan being sighted. At the end of the 28th day of Ramadhan the hilaal for Shawaal was sighted. In this case the people have to make Qadhaa of one fast.

7) The hilaal for Sha'baan was not sighted. However, the month was completed with thirty days and Ramadhan was commenced without the hilaal of Ramadhan being sighted. At the end of the 28th day of fasting the hilaal for Shawaal was sighted. In this case two fasts have to be made Qadhaa.

8) One should not take offence if one's report of sighting of the hilaal is not accepted by the Ulema. Non-acceptance of information regarding the sighting of the hilaal is not always because of the reporters being a Faasiq or unreliable. At times the sighting of a single person or even of a few persons is not acceptable to the Shariah. Hence, rejection of information and evidence is based on Shar'i grounds.

9) An Aadil who sights the moon should immediately go to the Qadi and testify to it. This applies to both male and female. Even if a woman is in purdah, she must report the sighting because this is an obligatory act-even her husband's permission is not necessary - (to go out of the home and report the sighting).

10) The Aadil or master person may send a person like himself to the Ulema for testification on his behalf. The person who saw the hilaal (moon) must testify to his deputy who will testify to the Ulema.

11) In all other cases besides the Ramadhan hilaal, the one who saw the hilaal must testify to two persons. Even if the one sighting the hilaal be a woman slave or upon one whom the punishment of false accusation has been meted out, provided he now has sought pardon and forgiveness - even if he sought forgiveness on the day of sighting, he may testify for any Deeni matter and the sighting of the moon is a Deeni matter.

12) It is not necessary to claim or to say 'I testify' when giving testification for the sighting of the Ramadhan moon. When the sky has clouds, dust etc. - then for the Eid-ul-Fitr moon the words 'I testify' is a condition which must come from two free men or one free man and two free women and to claim is not a condition.

13) When there is no Qadi (one who enforces the Islaamic laws or a Haakim (Islaamic Ruler) then if one pious person who conforms to Sharia, informs that he saw the Ramadhan moon then Muslims should fast and for Eid-ul Fitr if the sky is not clear then if two persons having the above qualities testify then Muslims should make iftaari (accept their testimony).¹

14) If the Sky is not clear and thirty days of Ramadhan passed then in declaring Eid-ul-Fitr there is no difference of opinion even if one person testified for the commencement of Ramadhan.

15) The Eid-ul-Adha (Zuha) hilaal sighting is the same as the Eid-ul-Fitr hilaal sighting.

16) For all other hilaal sighting, two Aadil men or one free man and two free women's testification is essential who have not been punished for giving of false evidence (or for false accusation).

17) There is no validity in seeing the moon in the day, whether it be before or after Zawwaal and this moon will be regarded as the moon of the coming night. This is the preferred view.

THE TARAWEEH PRAYER

Taraweeh (pl. Taraweeh) is the pause observed after every four rak'ahs of the Night Prayer during Ramadhan. The Taraweeh Prayer consists of twenty rak'ahs and has the status of Sunnah both for the men and women. Rasulullaah ﷺ observed this Salaat and after him his Companions also kept up the practice. It is independent of the Fast and should be offered even by the person who does not observe the Fast due to some reason, unless otherwise exempted.

MERIT OF THE TARAWEEH PRAYER

Once Rasulullaah ﷺ addressed his followers on the last day of Sha'ban, on the eve of Ramadhan, and said:

"There is a night in this month which is greater in excellence than a thousand months; Allaah has enjoined an extra prayer to be offered in the nights of this month. If a person performs a voluntary good act out of his own free choice during this month, he will be entitled to receive the reward of an Imperative act performed in the other months...."¹

In another tradition, he has regarded the Taraweeh Prayer as a means of the Forgiveness of sins.

He has said:

"The one who observes the Taraweeh Prayer at night during Ramadhan with complete faith and devotion only for the sake of the recompense of the Aakhirat (Hereafter), will have all his previous sins forgiven by Allaah"² and forgiveness - even if he sought forgiveness on the day of sighting, he may testify for any Deeni matter and the sighting of the moon is a Deeni matter.

TIMES OF THE TARAWEEH PRAYER

The Taraweeh prayer has to start from the evening the Ramadhaan moon is sighted and has to be discontinued in the evening the Eid moon is sighted. It starts after the Isha prayer and lasts till the break of dawn.

If a person offers his Taraweeh prayer before the Isha prayer it will not be valid, or if he offers it after the Isha prayer, but then has to repeat his Isha prayer due to some reason, he will have to repeat his Taraweeh prayer as well. (Durr al Mukhtar). It is however, commendable that the Taraweeh prayer is offered after one-third of the night has passed and before midnight.

COLLECTIVE OFFERING OF THE TARAWEEH PRAYER

Rasulullaah ﷺ led the Taraweeh Prayer in congregation on the 23rd, 25th and 27th of Ramadhaan. Then when he saw the great keenness and enthusiasm of the Companions (or the Prayer he decided to stay back in his house. The Companions thought that perhaps he had gone to sleep, and so came to his door to call him out for the Prayer.

Rasulullaah ﷺ came out and said:

"May Allaah increase your keenness and bless you; I have purposely not come out for the Prayer lest it should be made incumbent upon you and then you are not able to observe it regularly as a prescribed Prayer; so you should offer it privately in your houses, because offering a voluntary prayer in the house carries much more rewards (than offering it in the Masjid)"¹

This Hadith at least shows that it is permissible to offer the Taraweeh Prayer in congregation, because Rasulullaah ﷺ himself led it in congregation during three nights. After him the Companions also kept up this practice in small group till Hadhrat Umar ؓ, the second Caliph of Islaam, decided it as a regular congregational prayer to which none of the Companions objected. This practice continued in the times of the later Caliphs also. That is why the scholars have regarded collective offering of the Taraweeh Prayer as a compulsory Sunnat having the Kifayah status.

RAK' AHS OF TARAWEEH

According to the consensus of the Companions, the Taraweeh prayer consists of 20 Rak'ahs which are to be offered two at a time with one salutation, and after every four rak'ahs a short pause for rest has to be observed for the convenience of the people.

WHAT SHOULD BE RECITED OURING THE PAUSE

The worshipper has the option to be quiet during the pause after each four Rak'ahs, or recite some Tasbeeh, or offer a voluntary prayer. The people of Makkah, as mentioned above, used to perform a Tawaaf of the Ka'bah, and the people of Madinah offered four Rak'ahs of Nafl.

Some jurists; however, have recommended that the following Tasbeeh be recited in the pause:

سُبْحَانَ ذِي الْمُلْكِ وَالْمَلَكُوتِ

Subhana zil-Mulki wal-Malakuti

"Glorified is the Owner of the Kingdom of the earth and the heavens,

سُبْحَانَ ذِي الْعِزَّةِ وَالْعَظَمَةِ وَالْهَيْبَةِ

Subhana zil-izzati wal-"azmati wal-haibau

"Glorified is the Possessor of Honour and Magnificence and Awe."

وَالْقُدْرَةُ وَالْكِبْرِيَاءُ وَالْجَبَرُوتُ

wal-qudrati wal-Kibriyaai waljaboruti and Power and Greatness and Omnipotence.

سُبْحَانَ الْمَلِكِ الْحَيِّ الَّذِي لَا يَنَامُ وَلَا يَمُوتُ

Subhanal-Maliki-il-Hayy-illazi layanamu wa la yamut.

Glorified is the Sovereign, the Living, Who does neither sleep nor die.

سُبُّوحٌ قُدُّوسٌ رَبُّنَا وَرَبُّ الْمَلَائِكَةِ وَالرُّوحِ

Subbuhun QUddusunl Rabbuna wa Rabb-ul-Mala'ikati war-Ruh.

He is the most praised and the most Holy, our Rabb and Rabb of the Angels and the Spirit (Gabriel)".

CONGREGATION FOR WITR PRAYER

The Witr prayer is allowed to be offered collectively only during Ramadhān, and not in any other month. The people who happen to offer the Taraweeh prayer individually may also join in the Witr congregation, but those who offer the Sunnat prayer of Taraweeh behind the Imam are under obligation to offer the Waajib prayer of Witr as well behind the Imam. It is not proper to go to sleep after the Taraweeh prayer and defer the Witr prayer till Tahajjud time and then offer it privately.¹

RECITAL OF THE WHOLE QURAN DURING TARAWEEH

It is a Sunnah of Rasulullaah ﷺ to complete recital of the whole Quraan, from the beginning to the end, during Ramadhān. It has been related that the Rasulullaah ﷺ himself used to recite the whole Quraan before Angel Jibraeel ؑ during every Ramadhān, but in the year he passed away he recited it twice before him. He has exhorted his followers also to keep up the practice.

According to Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar ؓ, he has said:

"The fast and the Quraan will intercede for the believer (on the Day of Judgment). The Fast will say: My Rabb! I stopped this person from eating and drinking and fulfilling his desires during the day and he abstained from these, so do accept my intercession on his behalf; and the Quraan will say: 'I stopped him from seeking ease and comfort during the night, and he abstained from sleep and kept standing in Your presence, reciting the Quraan: so my Rabb! do accept my intercession On his behalf, So Allaah will accept the intercession of both.'²

The Companions kept up this practice. Hadhrat "Umar ؓ would make special arrangements for offering the Taraweeh Prayer collectively and recital of the whole Quraan during Ramadhān.

MISCELLANEOUS REGULATIONS ON TARAWEEH

- 1) Taraweeh Namaaz is Sunnat-e-Mu'akkadah for both men women.
- 2) To perform Taraweeh in Jamaat for Men is Sunnat-e-Kifayah.
- 3) If a person performs Taraweeh at his home while Taraweeh Namaaz is said in the neighbouring Masjid, the person who says it alone will not be sinful, but if all of the neighbours say it alone in their homes, all of them will be sinful for neglecting Taraweeh Jamaat.
- 4) The intention is to observe two Rak'ahs of Sunnat of the Taraweeh Prayer, and thus to complete 20 Rak'ahs with 10 salutations.
- 5) It is preferable to offer the Witr Prayer after the completion of the Taraweeh Prayer, but if the Witr Prayer is offered before the Taraweeh Prayer, or after offering some Rak'ahs of the Taraweeh Prayer, there is no harm."¹
- 6) If a latecomer for the Taraweeh Prayer finds that the Imam has stood up for the Witr Prayer when he has yet to complete some of his Taraweeh Rak'ahs, he should join in the Witr congregation, and should complete his remaining Rak'ahs of Taraweeh later in his own time.
- 7) It is desirable to observe the pause of rest after each four Rak'ahs for as long as the time for observing the four Rak'ahs; however, if the followers find it hard and inconvenient they may observe a shorter pause.
- 8) It is not valid to join in the Taraweeh congregation before first observing the Fardh Prayer of Isha, for Taraweeh Prayer has to start after the Isha Prayer.
- 9) If a person has observed his Fardh Prayer of Isha in congregation, but has not observed the Taraweeh Prayer in congregation, he is permitted to offer his Witr Prayer in congregation.

- 10) Even if he has not observed the Fardh Prayer of Isha in congregation, he is allowed to offer the Witr Prayer in congregation.
- 11) It is undesirable to offer the Taraweeh Prayer sitting unless one has a genuine excuse for doing so.
- 12) If a person is not able to observe the Fard Prayer of Isha in congregation, he can offer his Taraweeh Prayer in congregation.
- 13) It is permissible that one Imam and the Taraweeh congregation lead the Fardh and Witr congregational Prayers by another. Hadhrat Umar ؓ used to lead the Fardh and Witr Prayers while Hardhat Ubai led Taraweeh congregation bin Ka'b ؓ
- 14) If a few Rak'ahs of Taraweeh are invalidated due to some reason, and they have to be repeated, the relevant portion of the Quraan should also be repeated so as to make the recital of the Quraan complete and valid.
- 15) If the Imam stands up by mistake after completing two Rak'ahs of Taraweeh and realizes his mistake before going down for Sajdah, or is reminded by a follower, he should sit down in Qa'dah, recite Tashahud and complete the prayer with Sajdah Savh, If, however, he realizes the mistake after the Sajdah of the third Rak'ah has been performed, he should observe the fourth Rak'ah as well; in this case the four Rak'ahs thus performed will represent the original two Rak'ahs only.
- 16) If the Imam sits in Qa'dah after two Rak'ahs, but then stands up by mistake for the third Rak'ah, he should complete four Rak'ahs, which will be counted valid and in order.
- 17) It is not proper to offer the Taraweeh Prayer in congregation for those persons who have not first offered the Fardh Prayer of Isha in congregation, because this would mean giving preference to a voluntary prayer over an obligatory prayer which is not good.
- 18) If some people have started the Taraweeh Prayer collectively after observing the Isha Prayer duly in congregation, they may be joined by other people who did not observe the Fardh Prayer in congregation, because in this case the late comers would be following those who have observed the Isha Prayer duly in congregation before starting the Taraweeh Prayer.

19) If a person reaches the Masjid at a time when the Isha congregational Prayer has already been held, he should first offer the Isha Prayer independently, and then join the Taraweeh congregation; the Rak'ahs of Taraweeh which he has missed may either be offered during the pause or at the end of the Witr Prayer.

20) The persons who have not offered the Isha Prayer in congregation, but individually, may also join in the Witr congregation along with those who may be offering it after having observed the Isha Prayer in congregation.

21) The custom of holding "Shabinahs" which has become common these days is not correct; the Quraan needs to be recited most carefully and the followers have to listen to it with due attention and understanding in order to draw spiritual benefits as was the practice in the time of the Companions.

The Quraan says:

"This Book which We have sent down to you is full of blessings so that the people may ponder over its verses and those with understanding may learn lessons from it".¹

Rasulullaah ﷺ has warned:

"The person who finished recital of the Quraan in less than three days, has drawn no benefit from it".²

And the Quraan says:

"When the Quran is recited, you should listen to it with due attention".³

22) According to the Hanafis, Bismillaah-ir-Rahman-ir-Rahim' is a verse or the Quraan and has to be recited aloud by the Imam in the beginning of any Surah, not necessarily Al-Ikhlās (112), at least once in the Taraweeh Prayer during Ramadhaan. However, according to

³ (7:204)

Imam Shafi رحمته الله and the reciters of Makkah and Kufah, it is a verse of every surah, and thus has to be recited aloud in the beginning of every Surah accordingly.

23) It is undesirable to recite Surah Al-Ikhlās (112) thrice in the same Rak'ah of the Taraweeh Prayer.

24) When recital of the Quraan has been completed once, it is commendable to start reciting it again from the beginning in the next Rak'ah of Taraweeh and continue it till the end of v.5 of Al Baqarah (2).¹

25) It is not permissible to appoint a boy who has not yet attained puberty, as an Imaam for the Taraweeh Salaat (Kabiri). However such a boy may lead the Taraweeh Salaah if the followers of his congregation are also all immature children.² □

26) If the Imaam of one's Masjid recites the Quraan incorrectly, there is no harm in performing the Taraweeh in the Masjid of another area.³

27) It is Makrooh (abominable) to summon an Imam for Taraweeh on a fixed remuneration basis.⁴

28) If someone missed the Taraweeh Salaah (of some night) due to some reason; there is no Qadhaa for it (after the lapse of that night) with or without Jamaat. Albeit; if someone makes the Qadhaa, it will not be regarded as Taraweeh but as Nafil Salaat.⁵

29) When the Jamaat of Taraweeh commences, a person remains seated. As soon as the Imaam goes into ruku; he quickly makes his Niyyah and joins the Imaam. This type of action is Makrooh (abominable) and is similar to the actions of hypocrites.⁶

30) It is Mustahab (desirable) to spend a major portion of the night in Taraweeh.⁷

² (Kaniyyah)

³ (Alamgiri)

⁴ (Alamgiri)

⁵ (Bahr)

⁶ (Kabiri)

⁷ (Bahr)

31) To complete the Qur'aan once (either by reciting or listening) is Sunnat. To complete it twice is superior and to complete it thrice is even better. If the Imaam recites ten Aayat (verses) in each Raqaat, the Quraan can be very conveniently completed once. In this way, it will not be burdensome on the Muqtadis either.¹

32) It is better to complete the Quran once in every ten days²

33) It is meritorious for those who are Huffaaz of the Quraan to perform a further twenty Rakaats at home after returning from Masjid, so that they may thereby acquire the virtue of completing the Quraan twice.³

34) If the Imaam of one's local Masjid does not complete the Quraan in Taraweeh, there is nothing wrong in performing Taraweeh in another Masjid where completion of the Quraan does take place (Kabiri); because the Sunnah of completion of the Quraan will only be achieved there.⁴

35) In Taraweeh, the Imaam should recite "Bismillahir-Rahmanir-Rahim" at least once in a loud voice at the beginning of any Surah, By reciting it silently, the Imaam will have recited the entire Quraan, but the Muqtadis (followers) will not have heard the entire Quraan.⁵

ITIKHAAF

Says Allamah Ibn-i-Qaiyyim رحمته الله. "The basic purpose of "Itikhaaf is that the heart gets attached to Allaah and, with it, one attains inner composure and calmness and pre-occupation with the mundane things of life ceases and absorption in the eternal reality takes its place. And the state is reached in which all fears, hopes and apprehensions are superseded by the love and remembrance of Allaah. Every anxiety is transformed into the anxiety for Him and every thought and feeling is blended with the eagerness to gain His nearness and to earn His good favor. Devotion to the Almighty is generated instead of devotion to the world and it becomes the provision for the grave where there will be neither a friend nor a helper. This is the aim and purpose of "Itikhaaf which is the specialty of the most sublime part of Ramadhaan, i.e., the last ten days".

Similarly, Hadhrat Shah Waliullaah رحمته الله remarks, "Itikhaaf in the Masjid is a means to the attainment of peace of the mind and purification of the heart. It affords an excellent opportunity for forging an identity with the angels and having a share in the blissfulness of the Night of Power. For devoting oneself to prayer and meditation Allaah has set apart the last ten days of the month of Ramadhaan for it and made it a Sunnat for His pious and virtuous slaves".

Rasulullaah ﷺ always observed, "Itikhaaf and the Muslims have on the whole adhered to it. It has become a regular feature of the month of Ramadhaan and a confirmed practice with the devout and the faithful. Hadhrat Ayesha رضي الله عنها relates "Rasulullaah ﷺ regularly observed "Itikhaaf during the last ten days of Ramadhaan till the end of his life. After him, his wives maintained the tradition."¹

It is related by Hadhrat Abu Huraira رضي الله عنه that Rasulullaah ﷺ observed "Itikhaaf for ten days every year in the month of Ramadhaan. In the year he passed away he observed it for twenty days".²

MEANING OF ITIKHAAF

The reality of Itikhaaf is that a person remains in the Masjid for a certain period with the intention (Niyyah) of Itikhaaf.

There is no time limit prescribed. For whatever time is spent in the Masjid with the intention of "Itikhaaf, such spending of time will constitute Nafil "Itikhaaf. However, a period of ten days is prescribed for the Masnoon Itikhaaf of Ramadhaan - the Sunnah will not be fulfilled for a period less than ten days. In the case of Itikhaaf Wajib (that is, a person who has taken a vow to perform Itikhaaf), it cannot be fulfilled in a period less than one day and one night.³

WHO MAY PERFORM ITIKHAAF

1) It is necessary for Itikhaaf that a person be a Muslim and sane. Hence, the Itikhaaf of an insane person or a Kafir will not be valid. However, just as a minor child may perform Salaat or keep fast, similarly such minor may perform Itikhaaf.¹

2) A woman may also perform "Itikhaaf in her home by setting aside a specified place for Ibaadat and performing therein such Itikhaaf. However, it is necessary for her to obtain her husband's consent for such Itikhaaf. Moreover, it is essential that she is not a state of menstruation and Nifaas.

3) It is a condition of Itikhaaf Masnoon and Itikhaaf Wajib that a person be in a state of fasting. Hence, if a person is not in a state of fasting, he cannot perform these categories of Itikhaaf. However, fasting is not a condition in the case of Nafl Itikhaaf.

PLACE OF ITIKHAAF

For male persons, Itikhaaf can only be performed in the Masjid. The most blessed and preferred Itikhaaf is that performed at al-Masjid al Haram in Makkah. The next most preferred Itikhaaf is that performed at al-Masjid al Nabawi in al-Madinah. Third in order of prefer ability is al-Masjid al Aqsa (in Al-Quds). Fourthly, any Jami Masjid. However, it is not necessary to perform "Itikhaaf at a Jami Masjid. Itikhaaf may be performed at any Masjid where prayers are said five times (each day) in Jama'at.

If a Masjid is such that five time prayers (each day) are not said therein, then in such an event there is a difference of opinion amongst the "Ulema". Some scholars are of the view that Itikhaaf may be performed at such a Masjid, although it is not preferable.¹

Itikhaaf can be made in a Masjid wherein only in Ramadhaan five daily Salaat are performed.²

TYPES OF ITIKHAAF

Itikhaaf Masnoon- This refers to that Itikhaaf which is only performed in the month of Ramadhaan during the last ten days thereof commencing on the twenty-first night and terminating upon the sighting of the moon of Shawwal (that is, on the eve of Id al-Fitr). It is termed Itikhaaf Masnoon because Rasulullaah ﷺ performed Itikhaaf every year on these days.

Itikhaaf Nafl -This refers to that Itikhaaf which may be performed at any time.

Itikhaaf Wajib - This refers to that Itikhaaf.

a) which becomes Wajib because of making nadhr, that is, taking a vow,

or

b) which becomes Wajib as Qadha for rendering void a Masnoon Itikhaaf.

MEANING AND EFFECT OF MASNOONITIKHAAF

The Itikhaaf that is performed in the last ten days of Ramadhan Mubarak is known as Masnoon Itikhaaf. The time for this Itikhaaf commences upon completion of the twentieth day (of Ramadhan), that is, with effect from the setting of the sun, and remains until the sighting of the Shawwal moon (Id moon). In view of the fact this Itikhaaf commences from the twenty-first night (of Ramadhan) - and the commencing from the setting of the sun, it is therefore necessary for the person wishing to perform Itikhaaf to enter the boundary of the Masjid on the twentieth day on such time before Maghrib so that the setting of the sun takes place whilst he is in the Masjid.

The "Itikhaaf of the last ten days of Ramadhan is Sunnah al-mu'akkadah 'ala al kifayah, This means that if one person, who lives in a particular area in which a Masjid is situated, performs "Itikhaaf, then in such an event the Sunnah is filled on behalf of all the members of that area. However, if nobody in the entire area performed Itikhaaf, then all the members of the area will be liable for the sin of failing to fulfill a Sunnah.

RESPONSIBILITY OF MEMBERS OF AN AREA AND MAIN FEATURE OF ITIKHAAF

1) It is clear from the foregoing that it is the responsibility of every member of the area or township to ascertain in the beginning whether any person is to sit for the Itikhaaf in their Masjid or not.

2) However, it is not permissible to cause some person to sit by giving him payment or money because it is not permissible in the case of Ibadah to give or take money or wages.¹

If no member of a particular area is able to sit for Itikhaaf due to circumstances of necessity, then in that event arrangements must be made to call some person from another area to sit.²

The outstanding pillar of "Itikhaaf is that a person remains for the duration of Itikhaaf within the boundary of the Masjid. Save and except for the necessities of nature (see details later), he must not leave the boundary of the Masjid even for one moment. For, if he leaves the boundary of the Masjid for one moment without a valid Shar'i reason (the details of which are dealt with later), the Itikhaaf is rendered void.

LEAVING THE MASJID ON THE GROUNDS OF SHAR'I NECESSITY

By the term Shar'i necessity, we mean those necessities on the basis of which the Shari'ah has permitted the person performing Itikhaaf to leave the Masjid. The Itikhaaf is not rendered void if the person leaves by virtue of such necessities.

These necessities are as follows:

- 1) The need to urinate or defecate, that is, to attend to the call of nature.
- 2) The need for ghusl of Janaabat when it is not possible to make ghusl in the Masjid.
- 3) The need to make wudhu when it is not possible to make wudhu while in the Masjid.
- 4) The need to bring food and drink when another person is not available to do so.
- 5) The need of the Mu'adhdhin to go out for the purpose of calling Adhaan.
- 6) If Jum'aah Salaat is not performed in the Masjid wherein Itikhaaf is performed, the need to go to another Masjid to perform Jum'aah.
- 7) The need to move to another Masjid; in the event of leaking, etc. of the Masjid.

Apart from these needs, it is not permissible for the person performing Itikhaaf to leave the Masjid for any other purpose. Now, we shall, Insha' Allaah, explain details of each of these needs.

CALL OF NATURE

a) The person performing Itikhaaf can leave the Masjid to attend the call of nature, that is, urinate or defecate. In so far as urinating is concerned, he must go to the place nearest the Masjid where it is possible to urinate. In regard to defecation, if a toilet has been built attached to the Masjid, and if it is possible to defecate therein, then he must go there. It is not permissible to go to another place. However, if a person cannot defecate due to his nature or because of extreme difficulty at any place besides his home, then it is permissible for him to go to his house for this purpose, even if a toilet is available near the Masjid.¹

If a person does not have this difficulty, then he should utilize the toilet of the Masjid. If such a person leaves the Masjid toilet and goes to his house, then his "Itikhaaf is rendered void according to some Ulema."²

b) If the Masjid does not have any toilet, or if it is not possible to attend the call of nature therein, or in the case of extreme difficulty, then in such events it is permissible to go home to attend the call of nature, notwithstanding the distance of such home.³

c) If the home of a friend or a relative is present near the Masjid, it is not necessary to go to his friend's or relative's home to attend the call of nature. Despite this, one is permitted to go to one's home even if it is situated at a distance in comparison to the home of such a friend or a relative.⁴

d) If a person owns two houses then he should go to the nearer one to attend the call of nature. If he goes to the further home then his Itikhaaf is rendered void according to some Ulema.⁵

e) If the toilet is occupied, then it is permissible to wait until it is vacant. But it is not permissible to remain even for one unnecessary moment once the need is fulfilled. If one remains, then Itikhaaf is rendered void.¹

f) It is permissible to make Salaam to someone or to reply to a Salaam or to talk briefly in the house or on the way to the toilet and on return, provided that one does not stop for such brief talk.²

g) It is not necessary to walk briskly on the way to the toilet or on return. It is permissible also to walk slowly.³

h) On the way to the toilet to attend to the call of nature, one must not stop at the instance of another. One must while walking indicate to such other person that one is in a state of Itikhaaf. One cannot stop for this purpose. If one stopped for some time at the instance of another, then his Itikhaaf is rendered void. This applies to the extent that if a debtor has on the road stopped the person performing Itikhaaf then according to Imam Abu Hanifah رحمہ اللہ the "Itikhaaf is rendered void. The Itikhaaf is not rendered void by virtue of his necessity according to Imam Abu Yusuf and Imam Muhammad رحمہ اللہ.

Imam Sarakasi رحمہ اللہ has on the basis of ease and facility expressed a preference for the viewpoint of the latter two.⁴

However, precaution demands that one must not stop on the road under any circumstances.

i) It is permissible to smoke a cigarette upon leaving to visit the toilet provided that one does not have to stop for this purpose.

j) If any person who has gone to his house for the purpose of attending to the call of nature, then it is permissible for him to make wudhu therein after relieving himself.⁵

For this reason, the jurists have set forth Istinjaah as a separate ground of necessity entitling a person to leave apart from the ground of "attending to the call of nature".¹

i) While in "Itikhaaf, to be in the state of Wuhu is Mustahab (desirable) and not Wajib (compulsory). To read books of Tafseer and jurisprudence in the state of Wuhu is also Mustahab.²

GHUSL

It is permissible for the person performing Itikhaaf to leave the Masjid for the purpose of Ghusl of Janaabat in the event of emission of semen.

This is subject to the explanation that if such a person can make Ghusl whilst remaining in the Masjid, for example, by sitting in some big tub and performing Ghusl in a manner that the water does not fall in the Masjid then it is not permissible for him to go outside.

However, if this is not permissible or there is extreme difficulty then he may go outside for Ghusl of Janaabat.¹

If there is a Ghusl Khanah in the Masjid, then he must perform Ghusl there. However, if there is no Ghusl Khanah in the Masjid, or it is not possible to make Ghusl therein for some reason, or if there is extreme hardship, then one can perform Ghusl in one's home.

Apart from Ghusl of Janaabat, it is not permissible to leave the Masjid for any other Ghusl. It is not permissible to leave the Masjid for the purpose of Jum'aah Ghusl or a Ghusl to cool oneself. If one has left the Masjid for this purpose then the Itikhaaf is rendered void. However, if one wishes to make Jum'aah Ghusl or to cool oneself, then he must adopt such a course that the water does not drip into the Masjid. For example, he must sit in some tub and bathe himself, or make Ghusl in a corner of the Masjid in such a way that the water drips outside the Masjid.

EATING

If there is another person available to bring food and water for him to the Masjid, then it is not permissible for the person performing Itikhaaf to leave the Masjid for the purpose of fetching food. If, however, he does not have any person to bring the food and water, then it is permissible for him to leave the Masjid to bring the food.¹

However, the food must be brought to the Masjid and eaten therein.²

Such a person moreover must bear in mind that he must not leave the Masjid at a time when he is able to receive the food. But if he has to wait for some reason to receive the food, there is no objection.

ADHAAN

a) If a mu'adhdhin is performing "Itikhaaf and he has to leave the Masjid for the purpose of giving Adhaan, then it is permissible for him to go outside. But he must not remain there after giving the Adhaan.

b) If a person is not a mu'adhdhin but he wishes to give Adhaan for a particular time, then it is permissible for him to leave the Masjid for the purpose of giving Adhaan.³

c) If the door of the minaret of the Masjid is situated within the Masjid, then it is absolutely permissible for the person performing Itikhaaf to climb the minaret because it will constitute part of the Masjid. However, if the door of the Masjid is outside the Masjid itself, then apart from the need to give Adhaan, the person performing Itikhaaf is not permitted to climb such a minaret.⁴

a) It is preferable that "Itikhaaf be made in such a Masjid where Jum'aahSalaat is performed so that it is not necessary to go outside for Jum'aah, However, if no Jum'aahSalaat is said in a particular Masjid and only five times Salaat is said therein then it is permissible to perform Itikhaaf in such a Masjid.¹

In such a situation, it is permissible to go to another Masjid to perform Jum'aahSalaat. However, one must leave for this purpose at such a time that, in his estimation, upon reaching the JamiMasjid, he will be able to perform the four Rak'aahSunnah, and thereafter, witness immediately the commencement of the Khutbah.²

b) If the person performing Itikhaaf has gone to a certain Masjid to perform Jum'aah then he may perform Sunnah prayers after completing the Fardh in that Masjid. However, he cannot remain (in the Masjid) thereafter.³

If he remains for a period exceeding necessity then his Itikhaaf is not rendered void because he has remained in a Masjid.⁴

c) If a person goes to a JamiMasjid to perform Jum'aah and thereafter remains there and completes the remaining period of Itikhaaf, then his Itikhaaf will remain valid. This act is, however, Makrooh.⁵

TRANSFER OF MASJID

It is necessary for every person performing Itikhaaf to complete his Itikhaaf in the Masjid where he commenced it. However, if he is faced with such an extreme difficulty and hardship that it is not possible for him to complete the Itikhaaf in such a Masjid, for example, because such a Masjid may collapse, or he is removed therefrom under compulsion, or there is a grave danger to life or property by staying therefrom (in the Masjid), then it is permissible to move to another Masjid and complete the Itikhaaf there. If one has left for this purpose, the Itikhaaf will not be rendered void, provided that upon leaving, one does not wait or remain on the road but proceeds directly to the other Masjid.¹

JANAAZAH SALAAT AND VISITING THE SICK

a) Generally it is not permissible for the person performing Itikhaaf to leave the Masjid to participate in Janaazah Salaat or to visit the sick. However, if one left to attend the call of nature, and incidentally, on the road enquired of some person's health or participated in a Janaazah Salaat, then the Itikhaaf is not rendered void.²

Moreover, one can visit or enquire of the sick whilst one is walking on. Hadhrat Aisha رضي الله عنها has said that the Rasulullaah ﷺ enquired of the sick whilst walking on, and he did not change his way for the purpose.³

With regard to Janaazah Salaat it is a condition that one does not stop at all after the Salaat itself.⁴

TRANSFER OF MASJID

It is necessary for every person performing Itikhaaf to complete his Itikhaaf in the Masjid where he commenced it. However, if he is faced with such an extreme difficulty and hardship that it is not possible for him to complete the Itikhaaf in such a Masjid, for example, because such a Masjid may collapse, or he is removed therefrom under compulsion, or there is a grave danger to life or property by staying therefrom (in the Masjid), then it is permissible to move to another Masjid and complete the Itikhaaf there. If one has left for this purpose, the Itikhaaf will not be rendered void, provided that upon leaving, one does not wait or remain on the road but proceeds directly to the other Masjid.¹

JANAAZAH SALAAT AND VISITING THE SICK

a) Generally it is not permissible for the person performing Itikhaaf to leave the Masjid to participate in Janaazah Salaat or to visit the sick. However, if one left to attend the call of nature, and incidentally, on the road enquired of some person's health or participated in a Janaazah Salaat, then the Itikhaaf is not rendered void.²

Moreover, one can visit or enquire of the sick whilst one is walking on. Hadhrat Aisha رضي الله عنها has said that the Rasulullaah ﷺ enquired of the sick whilst walking on, and he did not change his way for the purpose.³

With regard to Janaazah Salaat it is a condition that one does not stop at all after the Salaat itself.⁴

b) Apart from this, if a person makes a condition at the time of the intention of the Itikhaaf itself to the effect that if he wishes during the course of the Itikhaaf to visit a certain sick person, or participate in Janaazah Salaat, or attend a certain Islaamic or religious gathering, he will do so, then in such a situation it is permissible to leave the Masjid for these purposes, and his Itikhaaf will not thereby be rendered void. However, in this manner, his Itikhaaf will become a nafl one, and will not remain Masnoon.

FACTORS THAT RENDER ITIKHAAF VOID

Itikhaaf is rendered void by the following factors:

- 1) Apart from the necessities mentioned above, Itikhaaf is rendered void if the person performing Itikhaaf leaves the boundary of the Masjid for any other purpose although such leaving is for one moment (Hidayah). It is clear that one will be said to have left the Masjid when the feet (of the person performing Itikhaaf) have been put outside in such a manner that according to custom one will be said to have left the Masjid. Hence, if only the head is outside the Masjid, then Itikhaaf shall not thereby be rendered void.¹
- 2) Similarly, if a person performing Itikhaaf leaves for a valid Shar'i necessity, but after completing such a necessity, he waits or stays outside (the Masjid) even for one moment, then Itikhaaf is thereby rendered void.²
- 3) If one leaves the Masjid without a valid Shar'i reason or need, whether intentionally, in forgetfulness, or by mistake, then in such situations the Itikhaaf is rendered void. However, one will not sin for rendering the Itikhaaf void if the leaving is due to mistake or forgetfulness.³
- 4) The Itikhaaf will also be rendered void if a person under mistaken belief enters a part of the area of the Masjid thinking that it falls within the boundary of the Masjid, whereas in fact it is excluded there from. Hence, one must properly ascertain the boundary of the Masjid before commencing Itikhaaf.

³ (Ibid)

5) Since fasting is a condition for Itikhaaf, if the fast breaks then the Itikhaaf is rendered void accordingly, irrespective whether such fast was broken for a valid reason or not, or intentionally or by mistake. In each of these cases, the Itikhaaf is rendered void. The meaning of breaking fast by mistake is that a person whilst remembering that he is fasting does some involuntary act which is opposed to the requirement of fasting; for example, the person continued eating until the rising of the sun or made Iftar before the setting of the sun under the mistaken belief that time for Iftar had passed; or whilst gargling water entered the gullet by mistake although the person remembered that he was fasting. In all these situations, the fast is broken and the Itikhaaf is respectively rendered void.

However, if a person forgot that he was fasting and in such state of forgetfulness ate, and drank something, then both his fast and Itikhaaf are not rendered void.¹

SITUATIONS IN WHICH IT IS PERMISSIBLE TO BREAK ITIKHAAF

It is permissible to break Itikhaaf in the following situations:

- 1) If such a disease emerges during the course of Itikhaaf which is not possible to cure except by leaving the Masjid, then it is permissible to break the Itikhaaf.
- 2) It is permissible to break Itikhaaf and go outside (the Masjid) in order to save a person who is drowning or burning or to prevent a fire.¹
- 3) It is permissible to break Itikhaaf because of extreme disease which has affected one's parents, wife or children.
- 4) It is permissible to break Itikhaaf if one is compelled to go outside (the Masjid), for example, if a warrant of arrest is issued by the government.
- 5) If a Janaazah arrives and there is nobody else to perform the Salaat, then also it is permissible to break the Itikhaaf.²

THE CONSEQUENCES OF BREAKING ITIKHAAF: RULES OF QADAH

- 1) If the Itikhaaf Masnoon is rendered void for any of the reasons set forth above, then it is Wajib to make Qa'dah only of that day in which the Itikhaaf was rendered void. It is not Wajib to make Qa'dah of the full ten days.¹

The procedure of making Qa'dah of this one day is as follows:

If there is time remaining in that Ramadhaan, then one must perform Itikhaaf with the Niyyat of Qa'dah in that Ramadhaan commencing from the setting of the sun to the day until the setting of the sun of the following day. If there is no time in that particular Ramadhaan or if it is not possible for any reason to perform Itikhaaf therein, then apart from Ramadhaan, one can keep fast on any day and perform Itikhaaf for one day. On the other hand, if one makes Qa'dah the following Ramadhaan this also will be valid. However there is no guarantee of life and therefore one must make Qa'dah as quickly as possible.

- 2) If the Itikhaaf Masnoon is rendered void, it is not necessary to leave the Masjid. But one can continue the Itikhaaf for the remainder of the last ten days with Niyyat of nafl. In this way, the Sunnat al-mu'akkadah will not be fulfilled but Thawaab will be obtained for the nafl Itikhaaf. On the other hand, if the Itikhaaf was rendered void due to some involuntary mistake, then it is not unimaginable that Allaah Ta'ala may bestow in His infinite mercy the reward of the Masnoon Itikhaaf of the last ten days. Hence, it is preferable in the case of the breaking of the Itikhaaf to continue the Itikhaaf until termination of the last ten days. However, it is permissible for a person not to continue the Itikhaaf after the breaking thereof. It is also permissible to leave on the day that the Itikhaaf is broken and to commence a nafl Itikhaaf with nafl Niyyah the following day.

THE AADAB OF ITIKHAAF

In view of the fact that the purpose of Itikhaaf is to withdraw oneself from worldly affairs and devote oneself entirely to the remembrance of Allaah, therefore, one must during the course of Itikhaaf avoid unnecessary talk and work. Whatever time one finds, one must spend in performing Qadha Salaat, Nawaafil (Salaat), Tilaawah al-Qur'an, and other Ibaadat, Dhikr and Tasbeeh. Moreover, the learning and teaching of Ilm of Deen, lectures and advices and study of Islaamic books is permissible and also a cause of obtaining Thawaab.

PERMISSIBLE ACTS (MUBAHAT) IN ITIKHAAF

The following acts are permissible in the state of Itikhaaf;

- 1) Eating and drinking.
- 2) Necessary transactions of purchase and sale relating to the necessities of life. However, it is not permissible to make the Masjid a center of trade as such.¹
- 3) Sleeping.
- 4) Haircut-provided the hair does not fall in the Masjid.
- 5) Talking and conversation, but it is necessary to avoid unnecessary talk.²
- 6) To contract a Nikah or other transactions.³
- 7) To change clothes, apply scent and oil.⁴
- 8) To assist a sick person in the Masjid, apply bandage or show him a medicine.⁵

³ (Al-Bahr)

⁴ (Kulasatul Fatawa)

⁵ (Fatawa Darul Uloom)

- 9) To give lessons on the Qur'an or Ilm of Deen.¹

10) To wash and sew clothes provided that when washing the person remains within the Masjid and the water falls outside the Masjid. This ruling also applies in the case of washing pots or utensils.

- 11) To pass wind in the Masjid at the time of necessity.²

Moreover, all those actions are permissible in Itikhaaf which are not Makrooh or render the Itikhaaf void, and which are in themselves permissible.

¹ (Shaami)

² (Shaami)

MAKROOHAT OF ITIKHAAF

The following matters are Makrooh in the state of Itikhaaf:

1) To adopt complete silence because the adoption of complete silence in the Shari'ah does not constitute Itikhaaf. If one adopts silence with the intention that such silence is Itikhaaf, then one will receive the sin of bid'ah (innovation). However, there is no objection if one does not regard silence as Ibaadat and endeavors to remain silent in order to avoid sin. However, whenever the necessity arises, one must not avoid or abstain from talk.¹

2) To indulge in unnecessary and vain talk; some conversation is permissible in accordance with necessity, but it is obligatory to avoid making the Masjid a place of vanities and unnecessary talk.²

3) To bring goods of trade and keep them in the Masjid.

4) To enclose such area of the Masjid for the purpose of Itikhaaf that other persons performing Itikhaaf or Salaat are caused difficulty or hardship.

5) To charge a fee for writing, or sewing clothes, or teaching on the part of the person performing Itikhaaf has been considered as Makrooh by the Jurists.³

However, if a person cannot earn to provide for himself for the fasts of the days of Itikhaaf without charging such fee, then it is permissible for him to do so on the parallel of sale. (And Allaah knows best).

6) While performing the Sunnat to indulge in a Makrooh is not correct.

ITIKHAAF MANDHUR

The second type of Itikhaaf is "Itikhaaf Mandhur", that is, that Itikhaaf which a person has made obligatory upon himself by taking a vow (nadhr).

Paying heed to the fact that this particular form of Itikhaaf is rare in occurrence, only the necessary rules have been set out below. For details, one should refer to the books of jurisprudence or a Mufti.

CATEGORIES OF NADHR AND THEIR LEGAL EFFECT

There are two categories of Nadhr:

- i) Nadhr Mu'ayyan, and
- ii) Nadhr Ghayr Mu'ayyan

i) Nadhr Mu'ayyan: this means that the Niyyah of Itikhaaf is made for a specific day or days or month for example, a person makes Nadhr that he will perform Itikhaaf in the last ten days of Sha'ban. However, if for some reason he cannot keep fasts in these days, then he must make Qa'dah in other days.¹

ii) Nadhr Ghayr Mu'ayyan: this means that no specific month or day is fixed for the performance of Itikhaaf, for example, a person makes Nadhr that he will perform Itikhaaf for three days. Hence, it will be permissible for him to perform Itikhaaf in all those days in which it is valid to keep fasts, and accordingly, his Nadhr will be fulfilled if he performs Itikhaaf on such days.

NAFL ITIKHAAF

1) The third type of Itikhaaf is Nafl Itikhaaf. This form of Itikhaaf is not subject to time, fasting, day, night - on the contrary, a person will receive the reward of Itikhaaf if he enters the Masjid with the intention of Itikhaaf at any time and for whatever period.

2) In the last ten days of Ramadhaan, if a person performs Itikhaaf with the requisite intention for less than ten days, then such Itikhaaf will be Nafl Itikhaaf.

3) If a person goes to the Masjid for the purpose of Salaat and at the time of entering (the Masjid) formulates an intention to the effect that he will remain in Itikhaaf for whatever time he spends in the Masjid, and then such person will receive the reward of Itikhaaf.

4) Nafl Itikhaaf remains in force for the period that the person is in the Masjid. Upon leaving or emerging from the Masjid, this Itikhaaf ends.

5) The person performing Nafl Itikhaaf should complete the Itikhaaf for the period or days that he intended to undergo in Itikhaaf.

However, if he leaves the Masjid for some reason prior to completion of the intended period, then he will receive reward for the period he remained in the Masjid. For the remaining (that is, uncompleted) period, he is not obliged (that is, it is not Wajib upon him) to make Qadhaa.¹

6) If a person, for example, made intention to perform Itikhaaf for three days and thereafter upon entering the Masjid, he commits an act which breaks his Itikhaaf, then in such event his Itikhaaf is completed, that is, he will receive the reward for the period he spent in the Masjid up to the breaking of his Itikhaaf, and furthermore, no Qadhaa is Wajib upon him (for the uncompleted period). In this event, he may leave the Masjid if he wishes, or remain therein by making a new intention of Itikhaaf. In such a situation, it is preferable that he completes the period for which he had made the intention of Itikhaaf.

ITIKHAAF OF WOMEN

1) The virtue of Itikhaaf is not confined to men. Women can also take advantage of it. However, women should not perform Itikhaaf in the Masjid. Their Itikhaaf is only possible in the house.

The procedure is as follows:

Women should sit for Itikhaaf in that place in the house which has been set aside for Salaat and Ibaadat. If no such place has been previously set aside, then a place must be so set aside prior to the commencement of the Itikhaaf, and the Itikhaaf must thereafter be performed therein.¹

2) If no specific places has been built or set aside in the house for Salaat, and it is not possible for some reason to so build or set aside a place therein, then in such a case a woman may, at her discretion, demarcate any place within the house and perform Itikhaaf there.

3) It is necessary for a married woman to obtain the consent of her husband for the purpose of performing Itikhaaf. It is not permissible for a woman to perform Itikhaaf without the permission of her husband.²

However, husbands should not without reason deprive their wives of performing Itikhaaf by refusing consent. On the contrary, they should encourage them.

4) If a woman has commenced Itikhaaf with the permission of her husband and thereafter he endeavors to prohibit or prevent her from completing same, then he cannot do so. If he succeeds in preventing her, then the woman is not obliged to complete the Itikhaaf.³

5) It is necessary for a woman to be free from menstruation and Nifaas in order to perform Itikhaaf - that is, she cannot perform Itikhaaf in a stage of menstruation and Nifaas.

¹ (Shaami)

² (Alamgiri)

³ (Alamgiri)

6) Consequently, a woman should, prior to the commencement of MasnoonItikhaaf, determine whether the dates of her menstruation will co - inside with the period of Itikhaaf. If the menstruation is expected to occur towards the end of the last ten days of Ramadhaan, then she must not perform MasnoonItikhaaf. However, she may perform Nafil Itikhaaf for the period until the arrival of her menstruation.

7) If a woman has commenced Itikhaaf, and thereafter menstruation commences during the duration of Itikhaaf, then it is Wajib upon her to immediately abandon Itikhaaf, as soon as her menstruation commences. In such a situation it is Wajib upon her to make Qa'dahItikhaaf of only the day in which she abandoned the Itikhaaf (as a result of the intervention of menstruation).

The procedure of such Qa'dah is as follows:

After the woman becomes pure of such menstruation, she keeps fast on any day and performs Itikhaaf. If days remain in Ramadhaan, then she may make Qa'dah in Ramadhaan in which case the fast of Ramadhaan will be sufficient. However, if Ramadhaan has terminated at the time of her becoming pure from such menstruation, then she must thereafter specifically keep fast Qa'dahItikhaaf for one day.¹

8) The place within the home demarcated by a woman for the purpose of Itikhaaf will for the duration therefore fall within the order of the Masjid. It is not permissible for her to move from such place without a Shar'i necessity. She cannot leave such place and enter any portion or area of the home. If she does so, her Itikhaaf will break.

9) The rules applicable to men relating to moving from the place of Itikhaaf are also applicable to women. For those needs and necessities in relation to which it is permissible for men to leave the Masjid, it is similarly permissible for women to leave the place of Itikhaaf for such needs and necessities (not Janaazah).

For those actions in relation to which it is permissible for men to leave the Masjid, it is similarly permissible for women to leave the place of Itikhaaf. Accordingly; women should thoroughly acquaint themselves with the rules relating to Itikhaaf Masnoon which have been discussed earlier under the heading Itikhaaf Masnoon".

10) During the Itikhaaf, women may, whilst sitting in their place of Itikhaaf, indulge in sewing and knitting. They can advise and guide others in regard to matters affecting the home. However, they cannot leave the place demarcated for Itikhaaf. Moreover, it is preferable if they utilize their time in Dhikr, Tasbeeh, Tilaawah al-Qur'an and "Ibaadat, They should not spend too much time on other matters.

6) Consequently, a woman should, prior to the commencement of MasnoonItikhaaf, determine whether the dates of her menstruation will co - inside with the period of Itikhaaf. If the menstruation is expected to occur towards the end of the last ten days of Ramadhaan, then she must not perform MasnoonItikhaaf. However, she may perform Nafil Itikhaaf for the period until the arrival of her menstruation.

LAYLATUL QADR - Night of Taqdeer

بِسْمِ اللَّهِ الرَّحْمَنِ الرَّحِيمِ
 إِنَّا أَنْزَلْنَاهُ فِي لَيْلَةِ الْقَدْرِ . وَمَا أَدْرَاكَ مَا لَيْلَةُ الْقَدْرِ . لَيْلَةُ الْقَدْرِ خَيْرٌ مِنْ
 أَلْفِ شَهْرٍ . تَنْزِيلُ الْمَلَائِكَةِ وَالرُّوحِ فِيهَا بِإِذْنِ رَبِّهِمْ مِنْ كُلِّ أَمْرٍ . سَلَامٌ هِيَ
 حَتَّى مَطْلَعِ الْفَجْرِ .

Amongst the nights of Ramadhaan, there is one called "Laylatul Qadr", a night that is noted for its great blessings. The Qur'aan Karim describes it as being greater in blessings and spiritual virtue than a thousand months, which in turn means that it is more valuable than eighty-three years and four months. Fortunate indeed is that person who attains the full blessings of this night by spending it in the worship of Allaah, because he has then attained the reward of "Ibaadah" (worship) for eighty-three years, four months and even more. Indeed (the granting of) this night for the faithful Muslims is a great favor.

THE ORIGIN

Regarding this night, in a Hadith reported by Anas رضي الله عنه in Durre Manthur, Rasulullaah ﷺ is reported to have said:

"Laylatul Qadr" was granted to this "Ummah" (of mine) and not to any other "Ummah" before this." As regards the reason for the granting of "Laylatul Qadr", various views are held. According to some Ahadith, one reason is given thus: Rasulullaah ﷺ used to ponder over the longer lives of peoples of the past ages and when comparing them with much shorter lives of his "Ummah", he became greatly saddened, because if his "Ummah" wished to compete with the people before them, then because of their shorter lives, it would be impossible for them to either emulate or surpass the previous "Ummahs" in the doing of righteous deeds. Therefore,

Allaah in His Infinite Mercy granted them this night of great blessings. This means that, if any fortunate person of this "Ummah" during his life - time spends ten such nights in the worship of his Maker, he would have gained the reward of (Ibaadah) worship for eight hundred and thirty three years and even more. Another report states that Rasulullaah ﷺ once related to the 'Sahabah' the story of a very righteous man from among the Bani Isra'il, who spent one thousand months in 'Jihad'. On hearing this, the 'Sahabah' enviously felt that they could not attain the same reward, whereupon Allaah granted them this Night (of Power).

Still another states that it so happened that our Nabi ﷺ once mentioned the names of the four most pious people from among the Bani Isra'il, each of whom spent eighty years in Allaah's sincere service, worshipping Him and not transgressing in the least. They were Nabi Ayyub عليه السلام, Zakariyya عليه السلام, Ezkeel عليه السلام and Yu'shaa عليه السلام. The "Sahabah" heard this, wondering how to emulate their achievements. Then Jibra'il عليه السلام appeared and recited "Surah Qadr", wherein the blessings of this particular night were revealed.

There are other reports too, explaining the origin of the night of Power. But no matter which of these are accepted, the important fact remains that Allaah has granted us this night as a great favour and how fortunate are those who have never missed worship in this night. As to which particular night it is, here again approximately fifty different views are reported. It is not easy to enumerate them all but the most generally accepted versions, shall follow in the ensuing pages of this chapter. Because the Qur'aan Majeed itself mentions the night, we shall commence with a shorter commentary of Surah Qadr.

Amongst the nights of Ramadhaan, there is one called "Laylatul Qadr", a night that is noted for its great blessings. The Qur'aan Karim describes it as being greater in blessings and spiritual virtue than a thousand months, which in turn means that it is more valuable than eighty-three years and four months. Fortunate indeed is that person who attains the full blessings of this night by spending it in the worship of Allaah, because he has then attained the reward of "Ibaadah" (worship) for eighty-three years, four months and even more. Indeed (the granting of) this night for the faithful Muslims is a great favor.

THE ORIGIN

Regarding this night, in a Hadith reported by Anas رضي الله عنه in Durre Manthur, Rasulullaah ﷺ is reported to have said:

"Laylatul Qadr" was granted to this "Ummah" (of mine) and not to any other "Ummah" before this." As regards the reason for the granting of "Laylatul Qadr", various views are held. According to some Ahadith, one reason is given thus: Rasulullaah ﷺ used to ponder over the longer lives of peoples of the past ages and when comparing them with much shorter lives of his "Ummah", he became greatly saddened, because if his "Ummah" wished to compete with the people before them, then because of their shorter lives, it would be impossible for them to either emulate or surpass the previous "Ummahs" in the doing of righteous deeds. Therefore,

Allaah in His Infinite Mercy granted them this night of great blessings. This means that, if any fortunate person of this "Ummah" during his life - time spends ten such nights in the worship of his Maker, he would have gained the reward of (Ibaadah) worship for eight hundred and thirty three years and even more. Another report states that Rasulullaah ﷺ once related to the 'Sahabah' the story of a very righteous man from among the Bani Isra'il, who spent one thousand months in 'Jihad'. On hearing this, the 'Sahabah' enviously felt that they could not attain the same reward, whereupon Allaah granted them this Night (of Power).

Still another states that it so happened that our Nabi ﷺ once mentioned the names of the four most pious people from among the Bani Isra'il, each of whom spent eighty years in Allaah's sincere service, worshipping Him and not transgressing in the least. They were Nabi Ayyub عليه السلام, Zakariyya عليه السلام, Ezkeel عليه السلام and Yu'shaa عليه السلام. The "Sahabah" heard this, wondering how to emulate their achievements. Then Jibra'il عليه السلام appeared and recited "Surah Qadr", wherein the blessings of this particular night were revealed.

There are other reports too, explaining the origin of the night of Power. But no matter which of these are accepted, the important fact remains that Allaah has granted us this night as a great favour and how fortunate are those who have never missed worship in this night. As to which particular night it is, here again approximately fifty different views are reported. It is not easy to enumerate them all but the most generally accepted versions, shall follow in the ensuing pages of this chapter. Because the Qur'aan Majeed itself mentions the night, we shall commence with a shorter commentary of Surah Qadr.

يَسْمِعُ اللَّهُ الرَّسُولَ الْكَافِرَ
إِنَّا أَنْزَلْنَاهُ فِي لَيْلَةِ الْقَدْرِ

"We have indeed revealed this (message) in the Night of Power".

Reference here is made to the fact that, on this specific night, The Qur'aan was sent down from the "Lawhul Mahfuz" (the preserved Tablet) to the heavens (above the earth). The mere fact that the Qur'aan was revealed on this night would have been sufficient to ensure its greatness. But apart from this fact, it is also noted for many other things. In the very next verse, a question is asked:

وَمَا أَدْرَاكَ مَا لَيْلَةُ الْقَدْرِ

"And what will explain to you what the Night of Power is?"

In other words, the question asked here is: Have you any knowledge as to the greatness and importance of this night? Have you any knowledge as to the great favours and bounties that go with it? The next verse proceeds to explain its greatness.

لَيْلَةُ الْقَدْرِ خَيْرٌ مِنْ أَلْفِ شَهْرٍ

"The Night of Power" is better than a thousand months".

The true meaning here is that the reward for spending this night in worship (Ibaadah) is better and greater than having spent one thousand months in worship (Ibaadah).

تَنْزِيلُ الْمَلَائِكَةِ وَالرُّوحُ فِيهَا بِإِذْنِ رَبِّهِمْ مِنْ كُلِّ أَمْرٍ

"Therein come down Angels and the Spirit, by Allaah's permission, on every errand."

Imaam Raazi رحمه الله gives a fine explanation for this verse. Commenting on this verse, he explains that when man first appeared on earth, the "Mala'ikah" looked upon him with concern. They even ventured to ask Allaah "Will You place on this earth, one who shall be riotous and shed blood?"

Similarly, when his parents noted his original form as a mere drop of sperm, they too looked upon it with dislike, so much so, that they considered it as something which polluted the clothes and had to be washed away. But later, when Allaah made that same sperm into the fine form of a child, they began to love and cherish him. So far have things now progressed that, when on this Night of Power we find that same man worshipping Allaah and adorning himself, then those very Angels (Mala'ikah) descend towards him, obviously repentant for the thoughts they had once harboured against him. In this verse, where it is mentioned (War-rooh) "and the Spirit", the reference is to Jibra'il عليه السلام who descends to the earth during this night. Commentators of the Qur'aan have given various meanings of this word.

Let us look at some of them:

The vast majority of commentators are agreed that Jibra'il عليه السلام is meant here and, according to Imaam Raazi رحمه الله, this is the most correct meaning. Allaah first makes mention of the Mala'ikah and then because of Jibra'il عليه السلام's special status among them, a separate mention is made of him.

سَلَامٌ هِيَ حَتَّىٰ مَطْلَعِ الْفَجْرِ

"Peace descends until the break of dawn."

Indeed this night is the very embodiment of peace: through out its span, the 'Mala'ikah' offers salutations to the faithful believers adorning their Rabb. As one group ascends, another group descends (with the same greetings), as indicated in some narrations. Another interpretation is that it is a night of complete safety from evil and mischief.¹

DUA WHEN IN SEARCH OF LAYLATUL QADR

It is reported from Hadhrat Aqeel (r) that he said: "O Rasoolullah (s) when I find myself in Laylatul Qadr, what shall I say?" Rasoolullah (s) replied: Say:

اللَّهُمَّ إِنَّكَ عَفُوفٌ تُحِبُّ الْعَفْوَ فَاعْفُ عَنِّي

"O Allaah, You are the One who grants pardon for sins, You love to pardon, so pardon me."

THE NIGHTS OF EID

Rasoolullah (s) said:

"The heart of the person who remains awake in Ibadat during the night of Eidal Fitr and Eidal Aduha will not die on the Day when hearts will be dead, i.e. the Day of 'Qiyamat'."

The nights of both Eids, i.e. the nights preceding the Days of Eid, are auspicious occasions which should be observed with reverence and worship. Rasoolullah (s) said that these nights are great occasions of Pradai and of gaining the proximity and special Mercy of Allah Ta'ala. These blessed nights should therefore not be allowed to pass by in idleness. Full advantage should be taken of these opportunities by offering obedience and Ibadat unto Allah Ta'ala in the best of our abilities. Nightly prayers, seeking forgiveness for sins, Thawab seeking for the Qiyam, Nafl Salawat, Du'aa, etc. should be judiciously utilized on these blessed nights.

Among the rewards which will be obtained as a result of observing the nights of these glorious Eid Nights, the greatest reward is the being accepted as an ally of Rasoolullah (s) in the above mentioned nights, as the heart will not be smitten with terror and fear on the Day of 'Qiyamat' when the appearance of the Day will be so awesome that men will appear to be intoxicated.

THE EID TABARRUK

Hadhrat Aqeel (r) narrated from Rasoolullah (s) that:

"Verily, on the day of Eidal Fitr when the Zakat comes out for the Muslims there is no 'Tab' (Worship), no Iqamat nor anything as that."

From the above mentioned Hadith it is clear that on the Day of Eid the Tabarruk should not be recited about a place where the Eid Salawat will be performed.

DUAA WHEN IN SEARCH OF LAYLATUL QADR

It is reported from Hadhrat Ayesha رضي الله عنها: "I said: 'O Rasulullaah ﷺ, when I find myself in Laylatul Qadr, what shall I say?' Rasulullaah ﷺ replied: 'Say:

اللَّهُمَّ إِنَّكَ عَفُوفٌ تُحِبُّ الْعَفْوَ فَاعْفُ عَنِّي

"O Allaah, You are the One who grants pardon for sins, You love to pardon, so pardon me."

THE NIGHTS OF EID

Rasulullaah ﷺ said:

"The heart of the person who remains awake (in Ibaadat) during the night of Eidul Fitr and Eidul Adhaa will not die on the Day when hearts will be dead, i.e. the Day of Qiyaamah."¹

The nights of both Eids, i.e. the nights preceding the Days of Eid, are auspicious occasions which should be observed with reverence and worship. Rasulullaah ﷺ said that these nights are great occasions of Ibaadat and of gaining the proximity and special Mercy of Allaah Ta'ala. These blessed nights, should therefore not be allowed to pass by in idleness. Full advantage should be taken of these opportunities by offering obedience and Ibaadat unto Allaah Ta'ala to the best of our abilities. Istighfaar (seeking forgiveness for sins), Tilaawah (reciting the Quran), Nafl Salaat, Durood, etc. should be profusely offered on these blessed nights.

Among the rewards which will be obtained as a result of observing the sanctity of these glorious Eid Nights, the greatest reward is the tiding conveyed to us by Rasulullaah ﷺ in the above mentioned Hadith, viz the heart will not be smitten with terror and fear on the Day of Qiyaamah when the upheavals of the Day will be so fearsome that men will appear to be intoxicated.

THE EID TAKBEER

Hadhrat Jaabir-bin-Abdullaah رضي الله عنه narrated from Nabi ﷺ that:

"Verily, on the day of Eidul Fitr when the Imaam comes out for Eid Salaat, there is no Call (Azaan), no Iqaamat nor anything on that day."

From the above-mentioned Hadith it is clear that on the Days of Eid the Takbeer should not be recited aloud at the place where the Eid Salaat is to be performed.²

¹ (Tibrani)

² (Fatawa Darul Uloom)

To recite the Takbeer aloud at the Eid Gah or the Masjid on the Days of Eid is a common practice. However, this practice is not permissible. Everyone should engage themselves in Zikr and Takbeer silently.

The prevalent practice of reciting the Takbeer-e-Tashreeq aloud at the Eid Gah or the Masjid where the Eid Salaat will be performed is neither the Sunnah of Rasulullaah ﷺ nor that of his Sahabah رضي الله عنهم.

THE ETIQUETTES OF EID UL FITR

The day of Eid is not merely a festive occasion. A Muslim acquires great rewards from and draws close to Allaah if he spends the day of Eid according to the teachings of Shariah and Rasulullaah ﷺ.

THE SUNAN (plural of Sunnat) OF THE DAY OF EID

- 1) To rise as early as possible (In fact much of this night should be spent in Ibaadah).
- 2) To make Ghusal.
- 3) To use the Miswaak.
- 4) To adorn oneself as best as one can - within the boundaries of Shariah.
- 5) To wear one's best clothes whilst ensuring that it conforms with Shariah (Sunnah dress).
- 6) To apply attar - (Halaal, non-alcoholic perfume).
- 7) To eat anything sweet (such as dates) before departing for Eid Salaat.
- 8) To go to the "Eid Gah" as early as possible.
- 9) To give "Sadaqatul - Fitr" before leaving for the Eid Gaah.

- 10) To perform Eid Salaat in the "Eid-Gah" rather than in the Masjid.

There is no harm for the aged and the sick to perform their Eid Salaah in the Masjid. Rain is also a valid reason for performing Eid Salaah in the Masjid.

- 11) To choose a different route when returning from the Eid-Gaah.
- 12) To walk to the Eid-Gah. However there is no harm in using any means of conveyance if the Eid Gah is a distance away.
- 13) To recite the following Takbeer while walking to the Eid Gaah:

اللَّهُ أَكْبَرُ، اللَّهُ أَكْبَرُ، اللَّهُ أَكْبَرُ، لَا إِلَهَ إِلَّا اللَّهُ، وَاللَّهُ أَكْبَرُ، اللَّهُ أَكْبَرُ، وَلِلَّهِ الْحَمْدُ

THE MAS'ALAS (RULINGS) PERTAINING TO EID

- 1) No Nafil Salaah should be performed in the Eid-Gah before or after Eid Salaah.
- 2) It is undesirable to perform the Eid Salaah in any other place besides the "Eid-Gah" without any valid excuse.
- 2) It is vitally important to listen to both Khutbahs after the Eid Salaah. If for some reason the Khutbah is not audible, it is still necessary to remain silent till the Khutbah terminates.

NOTE:-It was not the practice of Rasulullaah ﷺ to shake hands after Eid-Salah.

NOTE:- It is sinful not to listen to the Khutbah.

- 4) If someone passes away it is permissible to perform the Janaazah Salaat in the Eid-Gah immediately after the Eid Salaat.
- 5) One who shaves his beard or shortens it to less than one fist (when holding the beard with the fist) - such a person is not allowed for Imaamat of Eid Salaat just as he is not for any other Salaah. Moreover he is a committer of a serious sin since shaving or shortening the beard is contrary to a Sunnah of Rasulullaah ﷺ.
- 6) Imaamat is not an inheritance to be passed on from father to son.
- 7) If such an error is made in "Eid-Salaah" which necessitates Sadjah - Sahwa, then the Sadjah - Sahwa could be left out in order to avoid confusion.

METHOD OF PERFORMING EID SALAAH

- 1) Make the intention: "I am performing two Rakaats Eid Salaat which is Waajib with six extra Takbeers which are also Waajib".
- 2) After the Takbir Uola (1st Takbir), fold the hands and recite the Thana.
- 3) Then lift the hands thrice while saying "Allaahu Akbar." After the first two times leave the arms loose and after the third fold them.
- 4) Now, the Imaam will recite Surah Faatiha and a surah and the Rak'ah will be completed like in any other Salaah.
- 5) The second Rakaat will be performed similarly except that before going into Ruku, the hands will be lifted thrice (whilst saying Allaah Akbar") and each time they will be left loose on the sides.
- 6) With the 4th Takbir, the Ruku should be made.
- 7) The remainder of the Salaah should be completed like in any other Salaah.
- 8) Dua should be made after the Salaah instead of after the Khutbah.

A FEW MASA'IL REGARDING EID NAMAAZ

- 1) It is Makrooh-e-Tahrimi to offer any nafil prayers before the Eid Salaat.

immediately, the additional Takbeers, raising the hands during the first two additional Takbeers and clasping them after the third.

4) If a person joins the Eid Salaat whilst the Imaam is in Ruku, and if he is able to recite the three additional Takbeers before the Imaam rises from Ruku, then he should do so first before joining the Jamaat in ruku. If he is not able to do this then he should recite the extra Takbeers in ruku instead of the Tasbeeh (without raising his hands of course).

5) Since the condition of Eid Salaat is the formation of a Jamaat, a person missing Eid Salaat is unable to perform the Salaat on his own.

6) A person who joins the Eid Salaat after the Imam has already recited the Eid Takbeers should recite the Takbeers immediately upon entering the Salaat. However, if he enters the Salaat when the Imam is about to go into Ruku and he (the late-comer) fears that he will not be able to join the Imam in the Ruku if he stands and recites the Takbeers, then he should instead recite the Takbeers in the Ruku, and forgo the Tasbeeh of the Ruku but, while reciting the Takbeers in Ruku the hands should not be raised as is done when reciting the Takbeer when in Qiyaam (the standing posture of Salaat). If the Imam emerges from the Ruku and the latecomer has not yet completed the recitation of his Takbeers which he had missed then he should leave off the balance of the Takbeers and join the Imam. In this case the balance of the Takbeers that he could not complete are waived.

7) If someone missed a Rak'ah of the Eid Salaat, he should fulfill it as follows:

After the Imam terminates the Salaat with Salaams he (the one who missed the Rak'ah) should rise and perform one Rak'ah on his own, reciting Qiraat (Surah Faatiha plus a Surah) first, and after the Qiraat the Takbeers should be recited. The rest of the Rak'ah is then completed as usual.

8) There is no Qadha for Eid Salaat.

DUAA FOR EID-UL-FITR

Hadhrat Abdullaah Ibn Masood رضي الله عنه relates that Rasulullaah's صلى الله عليه وسلم Duaa on both Eids was:

اللَّهُمَّ إِنَّا نَسْأَلُكَ عَيْشَةً نَقِيَّةً، وَمَمَاتًا سَوِيَّةً، وَمَرَدًّا غَيْرَ مُخْزٍ وَلَا قَاطِحٍ، اللَّهُمَّ لَا تُهْلِكْنَا فُجَاءَةً، وَلَا تَأْخُذْنَا بِغَتَّةٍ، وَلَا تَعْجَلْنَا عَنْ حَقٍّ وَلَا وَصِيَّةٍ، اللَّهُمَّ إِنَّا نَسْأَلُكَ الْعَفْافَ وَالْغِنَى، وَالتَّقَى وَالْهُدَى، وَحُسْنَ عَاقِبَةِ الْآخِرَةِ وَالْدُّنْيَا، وَنَعُوذُ بِكَ مِنَ الشَّاكِ وَالشَّقَاقِ، وَالزَّيَّاءِ وَالسُّعَةِ فِي دِينِكَ، يَا مُقَلِّبَ الْقُلُوبِ لَا تُغَيِّرْ قُلُوبَنَا بَعْدَ إِذْ هَدَيْتَنَا وَهَبْ لَنَا مِنْ لَدُنْكَ رَحْمَةً، إِنَّكَ أَنْتَ الْوَكَابُ

EIDCARDS

Eid cards or the sending of Eid cards to friends and relatives is a custom which is widely observed by the Muslim community of today. For the guidance of Muslims it has become necessary to explain this practice of Eid cards in the light of the Shariah of Islam.

According to the Shariah, the custom of Eid Cards is a practice which cannot be condoned as permissible. There are several factors which established the prohibition and the non-permissibility of the Eid Card custom. These ASBAABUL HURMAT or PROHIBITING FACTORS are:

1). Tashab-Buh Bil Kuffaar or Imitation of the Unbelievers. Muslims have taken this practice of Eid cards from the Christians. Muslims have imitated the custom of Christmas cards of the Kuffaar. And, Our Nabi صلى الله عليه وسلم said about imitating the Kuffaar.

"Whoever imitates a nation becomes one of them".

Hence, it is not permissible to adopt the religious customs of unbelievers.

immediately, the additional Takbeers, raising the hands during the first two additional Takbeers and clasping them after the third.

4) If a person joins the Eid Salaat whilst the Imaam is in Ruku, and if he is able to recite the three additional Takbeers before the Imaam rises from Ruku, then he should do so first before joining the Jamaat in ruku. If he is not able to do this then he should recite the extra Takbeers in ruku instead of the Tasbeeh (without raising his hands of course).

5) Since the condition of Eid Salaat is the formation of a Jamaat, a person missing Eid Salaat is unable to perform the Salaat on his own.

6) A person who joins the Eid Salaat after the Imam has already recited the Eid Takbeers should recite the Takbeers immediately upon entering the Salaat. However, if he enters the Salaat when the Imam is about to go into Ruku and he (the late-comer) fears that he will not be able to join the Imam in the Ruku if he stands and recites the Takbeers, then he should instead recite the Takbeers in the Ruku, and forgo the Tasbeeh of the Ruku but, while reciting the Takbeers in Ruku the hands should not be raised as is done when reciting the Takbeer when in Qiyaam (the standing posture of Salaat). If the Imam emerges from the Ruku and the latecomer has not yet completed the recitation of his Takbeers which he had missed then he should leave off the balance of the Takbeers and join the Imam. In this case the balance of the Takbeers that he could not complete are waived.

7) If someone missed a Rak'ah of the Eid Salaat, he should fulfill it as follows:

After the Imam terminates the Salaat with Salaams he (the one who missed the Rak'ah) should rise and perform one Rak'ah on his own, reciting Qiraat (Surah Faatiha plus a Surah) first, and after the Qiraat the Takbeers should be recited. The rest of the Rak'ah is then completed as usual.

8) There is no Qadha for Eid Salaat.

DUAA FOR EID-UL-FITR

Hadhrat Abdullaah Ibn Masood رضي الله عنه relates that Rasulullaah's ﷺ Duaa on both Eids was:

اللَّهُمَّ إِنَّا نَسْأَلُكَ عَيْشَةً نَقِيَّةً، وَمَمَاتًا سَوِيَّةً، وَمَرَدًّا غَيْرَ مُخْزٍ وَلَا فَاضِحٍ، اللَّهُمَّ لَا تُهْلِكْنَا فُجَاءَةً، وَلَا تَأْخُذْنَا بَغْتَةً، وَلَا تُعْجِلْنَا عَنْ حَقٍّ وَلَا وَصِيَّةٍ، اللَّهُمَّ إِنَّا نَسْأَلُكَ الْعَفْافَ وَالْغِنَى، وَالتَّقَى وَالْهُدَى، وَحُسْنَ عَاقِبَةِ الْآخِرَةِ وَالْدُّنْيَا، وَنَعُوذُ بِكَ مِنَ الشَّكِّ وَالشَّقَاقِ، وَالرِّيَاءِ وَالسُّمْعَةِ فِي دِينِكَ، يَا مُقَلِّبَ الْقُلُوبِ لَا تُزِغْ قُلُوبَنَا بَعْدَ إِذْ هَدَيْتَنَا وَهَبْ لَنَا مِنْ لَدُنْكَ رَحْمَةً، إِنَّكَ أَنْتَ الْوَهَّابُ

EIDCARDS

Eid cards or the sending of Eid cards to friends and relatives is a custom which is widely observed by the Muslim community of today. For the guidance of Muslims it has become necessary to explain this practice of Eid cards in the light of the Shariah of Islaam.

According to the Shariah, the custom of Eid Cards is a practice which cannot be condoned as permissible. There are several factors which established the prohibition and the non-permissibility of the Eid Card custom. These ASBAABUL HURMAT or PROHIBITING FACTORS are:

1). Tashab-Buh Bil Kuffaar or Imitation of the Unbelievers. Muslims have taken this practice of Eid cards from the Christians. Muslims have imitated the custom of Christmas cards of the Kuffaar. And, Our Nabi ﷺ said about imitating the Kuffaar.

"Whoever imitates a nation becomes one of them".

Hence, it is not permissible to adopt the religious customs of unbelievers.

3) Tauheenul Quraan or Disgracing and Defiling the Quraan.

The custom of Eid cards involves an act of sacrilege against the Noble Quraan. Many Eid cards have verses of the Noble Quraan printed on them.

The printing of verse of the Quraan on these cards is abominable for the following reasons:

- a) In most cases, if not all, the printers of Eid cards are non-Muslims. These non-Muslims may continuously be in the state of Janaabat or greater impurity. They handle these cards and touch the verses of the Quraan, and this is not permissible. Muslims who condone this practice of Eid cards are responsible for this sacrilege of the Noble ayats of the Quraan.
- b) In all printing a certain amount of waste papers result. What happens to these spoilt Eid cards on which verses of Quraan appear? They are deposited in the trash. Again Muslims who condone this practice of Eid cards are responsible for this abominable defilement of Allaah Ta'ala's sacred Words.
- c) According to the Law of Islaam it is compulsory for a Muslim to be in the state of Wudhu if any verse of the Quraan is touched. The over-whelming majority of those who deal in Eid cards ignore this injunction. Those who have no Wudhu touch the verses of the Quraan printed on these cards. Thus, the maintenance of this useless custom is responsible for this great crime against Islaam.

THE SIGNIFICANCE OF SHAWWAL

Shawwal is the tenth lunar month. During the period of Ignorance Ramadhaan was regarded as a blessed and sacred month. Shawwal was regarded as a cursed month and a month of ill omen. The people of that time never married during Shawwal. Hadhrat Ayesha رضي الله عنها expressed disappointment of the people to consider this month to be inauspicious, as she was married to Rasulullaah ﷺ in this very month. The wrong beliefs of the people was clearly disproved by Hadhrat Ayesha رضي الله عنها by her marriage to Rasulullaah ﷺ in the month of Shawwal which was no obstruction to her elevated position and the great love Rasulullaah ﷺ had for her.

To a Muslim the first day of the month of Shawwal, is of very great significance, as this is the day of Eid. On this significant day Allaah showers His blessings and forgiveness on His servants who have fasted during the month of Ramadhaan.

It is related from Hadhrat Anas رضي الله عنه that Rasulullaah ﷺ has said: "When the day of Eid appears, Allaah proudly asks in the presence of the Angels regarding his fasting servants "O My Angels, what returns is there for such labourers who have fully completed their duty".

The angels reply "O Rabb they should be rewarded in full", Then Allaah asks the Angels, "O My Angels, what is the reward for those male and female servants who have fulfilled My divine command which was compulsory upon them, and now they have come out to beseech me in Duaa, I take an oath upon My grandeur and glory, My generosity and exaltation of My elevated position, that I will definitely accept their Duas", Thereafter Allaah says: "Disperse, I have forgiven you and replaced your sins with good deeds". Rasulullaah ﷺ says, "they return forgiven."

THE SIX NAFL FASTS OF SHAWWAAL

Hadhrat Abu Ayyub رضي الله عنه relates that Rasulullaah ﷺ has said:

"Whosoever fasted the full month of Ramadhaan and the follows it with six fasts of Shawwaal, is like a person who has fasted the full year".¹

In another Hadith it is related that by observing these six fasts after Ramadhaan all defaults and sins are forgiven. The reward of every good deed is tenfold or more.

The Thawaab of the month of Ramadhaan is equal to that of ten months and that of these six voluntary fasts are equal to that of the remaining two months to complete the full year. These fasts could be kept continuously after Eidul-Fitr or separately during the month of Shawwaal.

VALID REASONS FOR NOT OBSERVING THE FAST

1) Being on a journey

The Shariah in all its injunctions has shown due regard for the convenience of people and has never subjected them to unnecessary rigors and hardships. The Quraan itself has permitted the Muslims not to fast when they are sick or on a journey:

"Therefore, whoever of you is present (at home) this month must observe fasting on all its days, but whoever is sick or on a journey, (shall fast) the same number of other days".¹

1) The traveller is allowed to miss the Fast even if he is performing the journey for any purpose whatever and he has all the facilities available. However if he is not likely to face any hardships during the journey he should try to observe the Fast for the sake of the blessings of Ramadhaan.

2) If a person starts on a journey after having had the intention of the Fast or after having commenced the Fast, he will be under obligation to fast that day but if he breaks the Fast he will not be required to make Kaffarah.

3) If a traveller breaks his journey and halts at a place before noon and has not indulged in any of the forbidden things till then he has to observe the day's Fast but if he breaks it there will no Kaffarah.

4) If a traveller has the intention of staying at a place even for less than 15 days it is desirable that he should observe the Fast but if he intends to stay for 15 days or more it is incumbent (Fardh) upon him to observe the Fast.

2) Sickness

1) If on account of fasting there is a risk of catching a disease or there is a chance of the disease worsening or of delayed recovery, one is allowed to abandon the Fast provided there is a valid ground for this as advised by a righteous and competent physician or one's own confirmed experience or opinion. One is not allowed to abandon the Fast on mere whim or on flimsy grounds.

2) If a person follows his personal whim without any past experience or the expert advice by an Allaah-fearing physician and abandoned the fast, he will be committing a sin for which he will have to make Kaffaarah.

N.B: It is not right to follow the advice of an un-righteous physician who may have no regard for the Shari'ah values and injunctions.

3) Pregnancy

1) If a pregnant woman is certain or almost certain that if she' fasts the foetus will be harmed or she herself will be harmed, she is permitted not to observe the Fasts.

2) If a woman comes to know after having had the intention of the Fast that she is pregnant and she is almost certain that fasting would be harmful for her, she is permitted to break the Fast and observe it on another day without Kaffaarah.

4) Suckling

1) If a suckling mother has a strong feeling that fasting would be harmful to the baby or would keep it hungry on account of being underfed, or it would be harmful to herself, she is permitted to abandon fasting.

2) If a wet nurse can be arranged for the baby and the baby takes to her breast, the mother should not abandon the Fast; however, if the baby does not take to the nurse the mother may abandon fasting.

3) If the wet nurse has a strong feeling that fasting would be harmful to her or to the suckling, she is allowed to postpone fasting.

4) If a woman is employed as a wet nurse during a day in Ramadhaan when she has already made the intention of observing the Fast, she is permitted to break the Fast which she will have to observe on another day, without Kaffaarah.

5) Intensity of Hunger and Thirst

If a person is overwhelmed by hunger and thirst and runs the risk of life, or mental derangement, he is allowed to break the fast.

6) Weakness and Old Age

1) If a person is convalescing after illness and is weak and if fasting is likely to render him sick again, he is allowed to defer the fast.

2) A person who has become extremely weak due to old age is allowed to abandon fasting. If such a person has little hope to regain enough strength to observe the missed fasts later, he will be required to payfidya for each fast immediately or later at the rate of Sadaqah Fitr, which is one kilo and 110 grams of wheat per head. (See Fidya).

7) Risk of Life

If a person has to labour very hard for a living and he runs the risk of death if he fasts or he is under the control of a cruel master who threatens to take his life or severe torture if he fasts, he is allowed to abandon fasting.

8) Jihad

1) If a person has the intention of participating in Jihad against the enemies of Islaam, and thinks that fasting will cause weakness, he is permitted to defer fasting.

2) If Jihad is in progress, the participants are allowed to postpone the Fast.

2) Sickness

1) If on account of fasting there is a risk of catching a disease or there is a chance of the disease worsening or of delayed recovery, one is allowed to abandon the Fast provided there is a valid ground for this as advised by a righteous and competent physician or one's own confirmed experience or opinion. One is not allowed to abandon the Fast on mere whim or on flimsy grounds.

7) Risk of Life

If a person has to labour very hard for a living and he runs the risk of death if he fasts or he is under the control of a cruel master who threatens to take his life or severe torture if he fasts, he is allowed to abandon fasting.

8) Jihad

1) If a person has the intention of participating in Jihad against the enemies of Islaam, and thinks that fasting will cause weakness, he is permitted to defer fasting.

2) If Jihad is in progress, the participants are allowed to postpone the Fast.

3) If there is no Jihad going on but there is an imminent danger of a conflict any time, one may defer fasting.

4) If a person has commenced the Fast and Jihad is declared, he is allowed to break the Fast and observe it on a later day without any Kaffarah.

9) Unconsciousness

If a person becomes unconscious and remains in that state for a number of days, the number of the fast days thus passed will have to be made up later by fasting on other days. However, if a person did not do anything, to render the fast void on the day he became unconscious, whether he had the intention of the Fast or not, he will be deemed to have fasted that day; for the rest of the period he will have to fast the same number of days.

10) Insanity

If a person has a fit of insanity and he cannot fast, there are two possibilities;

a) If he remains constantly under the fit and does not regain senses at all, he will stand wholly exempted: he will neither have to fast the same number of days later nor make any expiation or

b) If he recovers from the fit occasionally, he will have to fast the same number of days later.

THOSE THINGS THAT DO NOT NULLIFY (BREAK) THE FAST

1) Having sex forgetting that it is Ramadhaan

2) Ejaculation caused by seeing anything erotic

3) Ejaculation caused by thinking and pondering, even if he continually sees, thinks or ponders

4) If a man puts medicine or oil through the hole of his private part (if a woman does so, her fast will break)

5) Fasting and Wudhu of a breast-feeding woman does not break the fast.¹

6) To apply medicine externally on the vagina or anus or rub medicine in these areas will not break the fast provided it does not reach that area from where absorption takes place into the stomach.²

Thus any suppository will break the fast.
